

BOOKS printed for J. DEBRETT:

DEBRETT'S PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER.

This Day is published, Number VI. of the present Session, revised and collated with the Notes of several Members, and to be continued Weekly during the Session; of

The PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER; or, the History of the Proceedings and Debates of Lords and Commons, containing an Account of the most interesting Speeches and Motions, authentic Copies of all important Letters and Papers laid before either House during the present Session.

* * * This Work was originally undertaken at the Desire of several Persons of distinguished Abilities and Rank, from whose Communications and Patronage it has derived peculiar Advantages. The favourable Reception it has met with during the four last and present Parliaments, while it demands the most grateful Acknowledgments of the Editors, encourages them to prosecute a Continuation of the same during the present Parliament. For this Purpose they beg leave again to solicit the Assistance of their former Friends, and every other Gentleman. A strict Attention will be paid to all their Commands and Favours; nor will any Assiduity or Care be wanting to preserve that Truth and Accuracy, for which this Work has hitherto been distinguished.
