

The opening sentences of the Burial Service were sung by the Choir, to the Music by Dr. Croft, while the Procession moved up the Nave ; after which the 39th Psalm was chanted to the Funeral Chant adapted from Beethoven.

The first part of the Service and the Anthem (Martin Luther's Hymn) having been performed, The Corpse was lowered into the Entrance of the Royal Vault, and the Dean concluded the Burial Service, in the course of which also two Chorales were sung by the Choir.

Garret King of Arms having proclaimed the Style of His late Royal Highness, The Royal Family and other Royal Personages were conducted out of the Chapel, and the others composing the Procession retired, while the Dead March in Saul was played.

A Guard of Honour of the Grenadier Guards of which Regiment His late Royal Highness was Colonel mounted during the Ceremony at the entrance to St. George's Chapel, and presented Arms on the arrival of the Remains of His late Royal Highness, and also when the Body was lowered into the Grave. A Troop of the Royal Horse Artillery was stationed in the Long Walk in Windsor Park, and fired Minute-guns during the progress of the Procession and the Ceremony.
