

CONTENTS

xi

ARTICLE II.

	Page
IN WHAT CASES AN INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY IS HELD	68
1. Inquest without a Jury is held only when the notice given does not reveal unquestionable facts of a nature to arouse suspicion of criminal homicide.
2. It should be made immediately, that is, within as short a time as possible after the death.
3. It should be complete.
4. It should positively exclude suspicion of criminal homicide.

ARTICLE III.

THE GATHERING OF EVIDENCE FROM WITNESSES IN AN INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY	74
The Coroner questions the witnesses and he may swear them.

ARTICLE IV.

THE CORONER'S VIEW OF THE SPOT IN AN INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY	82
The Coroner views the spot where the death has taken place and the spot where occurred the act which caused the death.

ARTICLE V.

EXAMINATION OF THE BODY IN AN INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY	91
The inquest is completed by the examination of the body.

ARTICLE VI.

BY WHOM AND WHERE AN INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY IS MADE	99
An inquest without a Jury, as well as an inquest with a jury is made by the Coroner of the district where the corpse of the defunct is lying.
The examination of witnesses and of the spot may be made outside the district in an inquest without a Jury.	