Controller Simpson Urges Need for Action by Provincial

Government in Address to Ward Seven Ratepayers—

Favors Dominion Currency and a National Bank—

Meeting Unanimous.

A representative gathering of the workmen of West Toronto filled the assembly hall of the Annette Street Public School last night at the special meeting of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, called to hear Controller James Simpson on the "Workingman and the Moratorium."

In the absence of the president, Dr.

Dow, W. H. Weir of the executive occupied the chair. Before the business of the evening the secretary, Wallis W.

Fisher, drew attention to the abominable odors which from time to time descend upon the city from the best residential parts of the district.

Can Do Nothing.

"We have interviewed Dr. Hastings about these obnoxious smells from the abattoirs," declared the secretary. "He informed us that he had absolutely no power over the abattoirs and could offer us no relief from them. I, for one, have stood all I am going to, for I have lost so much money that this nuisance to suffer it any longer." Several other citizens spoke strongly on the subject, and a committee was appointed to wait upon the provincial board of health and ask for relief.

The resolution drawn up at the last meeting asking for a limited moratorium as regards mortgage indebtedness and ensuring the banks for their ungenerous stand, was unanimously adopted, and it was decided to send copies to all the members of the federal and provincial parliaments.

Co-Operation Necessary.

"I believe," said Controller Simpson,

"that the situation which we demand the co-operation of federal, provincial and municipal governments for the relief of suffering caused by the money stringency and unemployment among the working men of Toronto and the country.

Our local committee asked that the government demand that the reason for the manufacturers and corporations for closing down their works and thus adding to the army of unemployed, whether it is the shortage of credit from the banks or the falling off of the demand for their goods.

"Since the federal government were not sure if their powers would warrant the enactment of such legislation as a moratorium and have appealed to the supreme court for an opinion, it is held by the local committee to be the right thing to petition the provincial legislature to pass such laws as will prevent the workmen from losing the property which is his all, thru the present trying conditions."
