Method of Cure.

Dr. Frederick Allen's plan of treatment is now available, based strictly upon his scientific experiments. If the person with diabetes has lost much weight he is put into bed and no food given, if there is no other serious symptom. If complications do appear, large amounts of water, alkalies, purgatives, stimulants are administered. Ordinarily, besides fasting, the patient is given from two to nine ounces of brandy or whiskey in tablespoonful The University lecture on the war for Monday evening by Prof. Lloyd promises to be one of the most important and interesting of the series. Folks who like to be entertained in a wholesome and up-to-date manner should have their quota well satisfied when Charles Howe and his "Heart Charmers" company appear at the Star Theatre tonight. Thirty becomingly gowned and shapely females comprise the chorus, while Mr. Howe is capably supported by Mildred Stoller, prima donna; Nettle McLaughlin, Ber-nice Bartlett, Alice Poole, John Keenan, Hal Pierson, Harry F. Henry, Chick Cameron, Earl Flynn, Bill Wil-son. Added attraction, Odivio and her 20 Swimming Girls.

Cecil Fanning

In Massey Hall on November 19 Mr. Cecil Fanning, the well-known song interpreter, will give a recital for the benefit of the Toronto Relief Society. It was the happy idea of Mrs. Forsyth Grant, president of the society, that this concert of Mr. Cecil Fanning be put under their auspices. French of Paul Herve and Jean Briet, and produced at the 44th Street Theatre last season, where it played to enormous business for six months will start a week's engagement at the Royal Alexandra Theatre tonight with the original cast and production. Mr. George MacFarlane, baritone, will sing "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary" in his own inimitable way. George MacFarlane is well known to the theatre-goers of Toronto thru his splendid work with the Gilbert & Sullivan opera revivals. In his main support, Miss Margaret Romaine, a young prima donna from the Paris Opera Comique, will be heard in her original role of "The Midnight Girl," a cabaret singer. Others in the cast are Teddy Webb, George A. Schillen William Pruette, Edwin T. Emery, Denman Maley, Henry Delf, E. J. De Varney, Mary Flynn, Zella Call, Lillian Concord, Amy Leicester, Daisy Rudd. Edith Whitford and Camille Truesdale.

Mrs. Wiggs at Grand

"De-lignted," cried Col. Reosevelt, when in Louisville he was shown the veritable "cabbage patch," wherein Mrs. Alice Hogan Rice found Mrs. Wiggs and hovey Mary. And the former U. S. president went on to say that he regarded Mrs. Wiggs' life quite as highly as the simple life preached by his friend, the Rev. Charles Wagner. Presidential praise is high praise always, and in his speech delivered before the students of the State Agricultural College at Lansing, Mich., he said: "You will learn the root principles of self-helpfulness toward others from 'Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch,' just as much as from any formal treatise on charity." This shows that the former executive is thoroly in accord with the American people, who love Mrs. Wiggs of the cabbage patch as they have loved few other women of literature and the stage. The play will be presented at the Grand Opera House all this week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

At Shea's

Those two clever vaudeville artists, Sam Chip and Mary Marble, in their new sketch, "In the Land of Dykes." will be the headline attraction at Shea's this week. Miss Marble made many friends here as the "lemming" pie girl in their former sketch, "In Old Edam." Emma and Harry Sharrock will offer "Behind the Grand Stand" as the special feature. The playlet contains much merriment. Mr. Hymack, known as the chameleon comedian, will offer character impersonations. Reynolds and Donegan are roller skaters and dancers. The Empire Comedy Four; Coakley, Harvey and Dunlevey; Gorden and Reca, novelty cyclists; Josephine Davis, singing comedienne, and the feature film drama, "His Long Lost Friend," complete the bill.

The Hippodrome

For sheer charm of story, quaintness and dameiness of the central character, "Such a Little Queen," in which Mary Pickford will be featured at the Hippodrome this week, is one of the gems of the current dramatic era. Miss Pickford, who is a Toronto girl, is probably one of the most beloved of all moving picture stars. Another feature of the bill is the latest pictures from the seat of the war. Frank Terry London's foremost comedian, will be offered as the headline attraction. "The Pool Room" is a dramatic sketch which carries special scenic investiture. "Those Three Girls" offer a singing, dancing and instrumental melange, while Archie and Gertie Falls have a clever acrobatic offering. Kally and Drake, singers and dancers, and the feature comedies, "Mabel's Latest Prank" and "His Long-Lost Friend," complete the bill.

Loew's Winter Garden

Tonight's entertainment at Loew's Winter Garden will consist of eight of the best acts now playing the Marcus Loew Theatres in New York City, with Willard and Bond, noted purveyors of black-face merriment, presenting their laugnable act, "Detectivism," as the neadline feature. Of equal headline distinction is Bessie Le Count, the diminutive comedienne, whose original songs and impersonations are features. Goelet, Storts and Lafayette, a sweet-voiced trio, present musical numbers in a setting of comedy, while Anderson and Burt will be seen in their funny playlet of domestic troubles, "Home, Sweet Home." Reddington and Grant, bounding tramps, in an acrobatic specialty; Swan's Cats and Rats, a unique pet animal act; Johnnie Woods, ventriloquist, and others, complete the array of acts.
