

corner beyond which lies the fair way of Provincial prosperity, such a reference as the one before us is invaluable. In addition to the boundaries, &c., of the several Counties of Nova-Scotia proper, and the routes of the Railway already projected, it includes the Island of Cape Breton and the proposed improvements in that interesting locality, all of which have been compiled from the most careful surveys and the latest arrangements. No person interested in the country who can afford the cost, should be without a copy. William McKay, of this City, is the Draughtsman; William Neele & Co., London, are the Engravers; and this Map, the result of their united labours, may be purchased at all the Book Stores in Halifax."—Morning Chronicle.
