

CONTENTS.

v

-	51	Chauncey's second engagement with Yeo,	111
-	51	Capture of the British transports,	113
-	53	Movements on lake Champlain,	114
non,	56	General Hampton invades Canada,	115
-	62	Wilkinson moves down the St. Lawrence,	116
-	63	Battle of Williamsburgh,	117
-	64	Hampton declines a junction,	120
-	67	The army moves into winter quarters,	120
-	69	Evacuation of Fort George,	121
-	71	Fort Niagara taken, and the Niagara frontier laid waste,	122
-	72	Events on the Southern frontier, and seizure of Mobile,	123
-	74	War with the Creek Indians,	124
-	75	Capture of Fort Mims,	125
-	76	Battle of Tallushatches,	126
-	77	Battle of Talledega,	127
-	78	Destruction of the Hillabee towns,	128
-	80	Battle of Autossee,	129
-	81	Expedition to the Tallapoosie river,	131
-	83	Retaliation,	131
-	83	Correspondence on the employment of the Indians,	133
ur,	83	Remarks on the army and navy,	137
-	85	Breaking up of the cantonements at French Mills, and af-
-	86	fair at La Cole mill,	139
ard-		General Wilkinson suspended,	140
	88	March of Brown's army to the Niagara,	140
Fox		Holme's expedition on the Thames,	140
-	90	Situation of affairs on lake Ontario,	142
-	91	Attack on the towns on the American margin of the lake,	143
-	91	Capture of a British detachment at Sandy bay,	145
-	91	Burning of Long Point,	147
-	92	Capture of Fort Erie, and Battle of Chippewa plains,	148
-	93	Battle of Bridgewater,	51
-	94	Attack upon Buffalo,	56
-	94	Siege of Fort Erie,	157
-	95	General assault of the works,	158
	100	Capture of two schooners on lake Erie,	160
-	101	Critical situation of the garrison in Fort Erie,	160
-	103	Brilliant sortie,	161
-	105	The British raise the siege,	162
-	106	Expedition under general Bissell,	162
-	106	McArthur's expedition towards Burlington Heights,	163
bat-		Evacuation of Canada,	165
	107	British depredations in the Chesapeake,	165
-	109	Movements of Barney's flotilla,	165
	110	Measures for the defence of Baltimore and Washington,	167