

- Ranch life, 103-143.
 Raphael, Otto, 192-193.
 Reading, as a boy, 17, 19-22; choice of books for, 359-364; range of, for author's children, 375-376. See Books.
 Rebates, railway, 473-474.
 Reclamation, work of, 429 ff.
 Reclamation Act, 428, 431, 432, 434, 448.
 Reed, T. B., quoted, 167; mentioned, 294.
 Reformers of "silk stocking" type, 96-97.
 Reid, Mayne, 17, 19, 20.
 Reid, New York policeman, 199.
 Remington, Frederic, 103, 133; "Bronco Buster" by, given to author, 356.
 Republican Administration, office-holders used by, to debauch political convention of 1912, 146.
 Republican party, position of, in 1898, 297-298; in New York State, 298-303; at time of author's succession to Presidency, 381-382.
 Revolution of Panama against Colombia, 564-566.
 Revolutions on Isthmus of Panama, 555-558.
 Reynolds, James B., 313.
 Rhinoceros hunting, 40, 41.
 Richards, Laura E., children's books by, 20, 376.
 Rifle practice at Sagamore Hill, 36.
 Riis, Jacob, 48, 70, 211, 313; author's close association and work with, 185 ff., 218-219; "How the Other Half Lives" by, 187.
 Rixey, Surgeon-General P. M., 52, 55.
 Robb, Hamden, 73.
 Robin, the English, 352.
 Robinson, Douglas, 294.
 "Robinson Crusoe," reading of, 20-21.
 Rock Creek, walks down, 51, 52.
 Rock Creek Park, family excursions to, 365.
 Rockhill, Ambassador, 388.
 Roosevelt, Isaac, 3.
 Roosevelt, Kermit, 40.
 Roosevelt, Klaes Martensen van, 1.
 Roosevelt, Martha Bulloch, 14.
 Roosevelt, Mrs. Theodore, gift of silver vase to, by men of the Louisiana, 356.
 Roosevelt, Robert, 15.
 Roosevelt, Theodore, father of author, 8-14.
 Roosevelt, Theodore, ancestry, 1-5; birth of, 6; childhood, 6 ff.; father, 8-14; mother, 14-15; relatives, 15-16; schooling, 17; early interest in natural history, 17-19, 22-24; reading as a child, 19-22; winter abroad, 23-26; preparation for college, 26-27; course at Harvard, 27-31; exercise and sports, 32 ff.; game shooting, 40-42; boxing and wrestling, 47-51; exercise while President, 51-54; breaking into politics, 62-64; election to New York Legislature, 70; experiences in the Assembly, 70 ff.; defeat for nomination as Speaker, and beneficial results, 95-97; ranch life on the Little Missouri, 103-143; unsuccessful campaign for Mayoralty of New York City, 144; appointment and work as Civil Service Commissioner, 144 ff.; service as Police Commissioner of New York City, 185-222; appointment to Assistant Secretaryship of the Navy, 224; preparation for the Spanish War, 230 ff.; appointed Lieutenant-Colonel of the Rough Riders, 238; activities in getting regiment to Cuba, 249-255; the fight at La Guasima and Kettle Hill, 256-261; battle of San Juan Hill, 261-266; round-robin incident, 267-269, 278-279; letters concerning share in battle of San Juan Hill, 279-291; election and work as Governor of New York, 293 ff.; nomination to the Vice-Presidency,