Canada Fails to Win Cricket Game From Americans

Poor Fielding in Closing Innings Loses for the Canadians—A Draw With Visitors 46 Behind.

The Yankees required 223 runs to tie the match. The two and a half hours left was insufficient time for that total and it looked an easy task for the Canuck bowlers to win. But all were mistaken for Haines and Henry completely collared the trundling after both were missed off Black in the early overs. Gordon, too, was given a life off Lane and thus the visitors were unable to secure a draw. Haines, Graham, Gordon and Lee were all equally well set and it was not till Wookey was tried the third time that he clean bowled Haines for a well played 57, top score of the match. The telegraph showed 130 runs and there were only four wickets to fall in the half hour remaining. It turned out a nice battle and exciting finish. Wookey bowled McDonough, Scattergood and there was only 15 minutes left to get the remaining two wickets. Middleton and Hart batted out time and Callagan was waiting with his pads on when 6.30 arrived. The visitors had thus two wickets to the good and the Canadians a lead of 46 runs, or 346 to 200 on the two innings. Score:

Dovercourt Defeat Garretts.

Contrary to the prediction of the self-assumed east end glossarist, who, in an irresponsible and vaporous commentary on the C. and M. Leaguers, decreed that Dovercourt would be an easy thing for the Garretts, Dovercourt, thanks only to a "reproduction" of their old time form, proved themselves much too good for their opponents on Saturday afternoon in Dovercourt Park.

The Garretts went first to bat on a good wicket and compiled 75 runs, of which Weston (19 not out), Bodger (20) and T. Tunbridge (10) were the chief contributors. For Dovercourts' attack Gray (2 for 5) and Hammond (3 for 19) bowled the best, while the home wicket keeper (J. W. Larmouth) gave a sterling exhibition behind the stumps, taking three Garrett batsmen, two caught and the other stumped, and allowed no extras. He also made 17 runs with the bat for Dovercourt. Watson and Butterfield opened Dovercourt's innings and were not separated until the score had reached 38 runs. With the fall of three wickets the visitors' score was passed. The remaining batsmen only added 42 more runs, chiefly thru their disposition to hit at the straight ones. Henderson (15) and W. C. Larmouth (10) also reached double figures for Dovercourt. Bodger for Garretts took three wickets for three and Marsh 2 for 21 runs. Score:

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

"Doctor De Luxe" at the Princess.

Ralph Herz, who opens a week's engagement at the Princess Theatre tonight in the novel musical comedy, "Doctor De Luxe," comes direct to Toronto from New York, and judging from the advance reports this will be one of the best musical attractions that will visit Toronto during the coming season. The critics have been very high in their praise of the Hauerbach and Hoschna new musical comedy. Messrs. Hauerbach and Hoschna are the composers of "Madame Sherry," "Three Twins," and "The Girl of My Dreams," and "Doctor De Luxe" is said to surpass any of their former efforts.

The music is very beautiful, and amongst the song hits are "For Every Boy Who's Lonely, There's a Girl Who's Lonely, Too"; "When the Old Top Hummed," "Jealousy," "The Accent Makes No Difference in the Language of Love," and the famous "Harum-Scarum" kiddies, America's famous dancing girls.

The usual matinees, Wednesday and Saturday, during the engagement.

Travel Festival at Royal Alexandra.

The Lyman Howe Travel Festival will close a successful two weeks' engagement at the Royal Alexandra next Saturday night, Sept. 2. The program for this, the farewell week, is far ahead of any shown yet.

"Real" corners of real Japan in one of the scenes take the audience to two of the "three most lovely sights in Japan"—Nikko, the mecca of Japan, and Nara, the ancient capital. The peculiar charm of the scenes which will be presented in all the glory of natural colors, is said to inspire thrills of enthusiasm and delight. That the old traditions of Japan still live is also demonstrated in scenes which show how children of the Samurai are taught the arts of ancient warfare. They illustrate the Japanese idea of our own Boy Scout movement. But the novelty of Japanese life and methods is emphasized still more by another subject showing how fishermen employ birds—cormorants—to catch fish.

The growth and development of flowers from young buds into full bloom is still another feature which Mr. Howe claims is the most fascinating and interesting nature study that has ever been photographed. Then, too, there will be an excursion in the harvest of cocoanuts and stringing them into huge rafts which float down the river to the seaport for shipment.

Gun practice on a dreadnought, wood-carvers in the Tyrol, are only a few of the subjects, of which the most thrilling is a ride in an aeroplane with Lincoln Beachey, America's most daring aviator, and who for the first time in the history of aviation operated a moving picture camera simultaneously while making a flight, which imparts the real sensation to the audience of darting thru the air at an altitude of 1000 feet. Owing to popular demand, the great coronation scenes will be repeated.

Vaughan Glaser at the Grand.

Vaughan Glaser's effective staging of the "Prince Chap" at the Grand Opera House last week, will awaken considerable interest in his production of "The Only Way," to be given at the same theatre to-night, with the customary matinee performances thruout the week. The week will be the last for Mr. Glaser for some time.

"The Only Way," is a dramatization of Charles Dickens' immortal novel, "A Tale of Two Cities," Freeman Wills, a noted English writer, made the dramatization for Martin Harvey.

The story opens in the lacehouse quarters of Sydney Carton in London. Carton is a most brilliant barrister, but drink has enslaved him. He is in love with Lucy Manette, but realizes that she is not for him, that he is entirely unworthy of her. On the scene comes the Marquis de Egremont, a French aristocrat, who fled Paris on the breaking out of the commune. He meets Lucy and falls in love with her, and she with him.

Sydney Carton, instead of trying to injure the marquis does all in his power to save him from the enemies on his trail, and finally, when the marquis is abducted to Paris and cast into the Bastile under sentence of death, Sydney Carton bribes one of the keepers of the Bastile, enters the condemned man's cell, and after drugging him changes clothes with him and has him smuggled from the prison while he takes his place in the condemned cell and goes to the guillotine in his place.

Dave Marion's Dreamland Burlesquers.

Dave Marion and his big company of Dreamland Burlesquers will come to the Gayety Theatre for an engagement, beginning to-day with the usual matinees. Mr. Marion will again be seen in his famous characterization of Snuffy, the Cabman, which is a classic in its way. He has still further improved the part until now it stands forth as one of the cleverest in burlesque.

As to the show generally there can be no doubt that it is right up to the minute and a trifle beyond. There is absolutely nothing in it that isn't of the vintage of 1911. Good, clean, wholesome fun, catchy songs, beautiful chorus, gorgeous costumes, elaborate, scenic and electric effects, clever comedians, and plenty of new jokes will be found in this entertainment.

Mr. Marion's promise to the public to give them a big $2 show at burlesque prices has been more than fulfilled.

To-day at Shea's.

Gus Edwards' New Schoolboys and Girls will head the bill at Shea's Theatre this week. Lillian Gonne, the original Sassy Little, is with the act in her original character and a company of ten clever girls and boys surround her.

The Six Musical Cuttys, America's foremost musical family, will be the special attraction for the week.

Included in this week's bill are Milton and Dolly Nobles, in "Why Walker Reformed"; Three Shelvey Boys; Bert Melrose, comedy acrobat; Arthur Brown, singing cartoonist; Carl Randall, "the American Lad," and the kinetograph.

Pat White at the Star.

At the Star Theatre for this week Pat White and his own show will be the attraction, produced and staged under the personal direction of Pat White, which in itself is a guarantee for novelty and efficiency. It is safe to predict a treat in good musical numbers and a well staged production with all the laughs of a week squeezed into two and a half hours' entertainment.

The first part is entitled "Casey's Celebration" and "At the Hoffman Club House" is the after piece. Both are good mirth provoking vehicles, introducing Pat White in his well known character of Casey.

The ollo is one of exceptional merit and introduces such well known favorites as Geo. T. Davis, Anna Grant, Marie Fisher, Carmen Levee, Mendelsohn and Kelley and the Musical Williams.

FALL REGATTA OF T. C. C.

The annual fall regatta of the Toronto Canoe Club on Saturday drew a good entry list, and keen competition resulted. The first event, the international double blade, had four entries, A. M. McKenzie of T. C. C. winning by two lengths from J. S. McGregor, a mudmate. Chuck Skene, erstwhile walker and runner, finished in third position for the Beach Canoe Club. A fairly good crowd witnessed the events. Only two entries faced the starter in the single blade singles. A. M. McKenzie won from J. S. McGregor in a driving finish after tying with him over the greater half of the course. Results:

International double blade, open, 1 mile course—1, A. M. McKenzie, T.C.C.; 2, J. S. McGregor, T.C.C.; 3, Chuck Skene, Beach C.C. Time, 9 min.

Single blade singles, one-half mile—1, A. M. McKenzie; 2, J. S. McGregor. Time, 5.22.

Single-blade tandem, half-mile—1, O. M. McKenzie and O. Elliott; 2, J. S. McGregor and F. Gooch; 3, F. Foote and S. Reid. Time 4.55.

McDougall and Fraser Elliott caused the sensation by leading McKenzie and O. Elliott in, but they turned short of the buoy and were disqualified. A scant length separated McKenzie and Elliott and McGregor and Gooch.

Double-blade fours, half-mile—1, J. Gooch, W. Reid, R. Gooch, J. McGregor; 2, A. Blackburn, McFarlane, O. Elliott, A. McKenzie; 3, C. Riddy, Foote, Green, S. Reid. Time 4.09.

Gooch's crew got even in this race for their defeat in the single-blade fours. McKenzie's boat took the lead at the start, but Gooch's crew drew up on them, winning by a scant quarter-length.

Single blade fours, half mile—1 (McKenzie, McFarlane, Blackburn, Elliott); 2 (F. J. Gooch, F. Green, McGregor, R. Gooch); 3 (F. Foote, W. Reid, C. Riddy, F. Elliott). Time 4.31.

This was the race of the day. McKenzie's crew was defeated by Gooch's crew in the western division of the C.C.A., who were in turn trimmed on the New Edinburgh course by the McKenzie boat in the C.C.A. finals. Both crews were out for blood, and from the gun they were away to fight every inch. McKenzie's boat took the lead from the start, and held it, rounding the buoy a length ahead. At the finish a scant length separated the rival crews.

War canoe, half-mile, straight away—1, McFarlane, W. Reid, Riddy, F. Elliot, Romuil, Kenalley, Wilson, S. Reid, F. Foote, R. Good, O. Elliott; 2, McGregor, R. Blackburn, J. Gooch, R. Jarvis, F. Green, R. Templeton, A. McKenzie, W. Gowland, G. McDougall, C. Hurst, A. Blackburn. Time, 3.10.

The all-round club championship was won by A. M. McKenzie with 19 points. J. S. McGregor ran him a second with 16. The prize was a life membership, but McKenzie will be presented with a gold medal, as he won the membership card last year.

Automobile Race and Death.

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 26.—The 305-mile road race, won by Len Len Sengel in a National, with Harry Grant second and Hugh Hughes third, was not accomplished without its toll of death and injuries.

Dave Buck, the veteran Chicago automobile racer, was within eleven laps of the finish, and going at the rate of 64 miles an hour, on the back stretch, when his right forward wheel threw a tire. The machine turned a complete somersault, and Sam Jacobs, the mechanician, was instantly killed, his neck being broken. Buck had his back broken and died during the evening at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Another accident, in which thirty persons were injured, mostly slightly, occurred shortly after 11 o'clock, while the first lap of the race was on, several sections of the insecurely-built circuit seats giving way. A thousand or more persons were precipitated to the ground, and four, including a daughter of Senator Lorimer, had a leg broken.

Sengel's time was 4.35.39, an average of four miles an hour faster than that made by Mulford last year.
