FLAX IS WORLD'S

Cessation of Export From Russia Causes Shortage in Britain.

THE strongest and most durable fibre known is that of the flax. From the remotest ages this has been woven into linen by all peoples to whom it was known. The lake dwellers of Switzerland used it; it was cultivated five thousand years ago in Mesopotamia, Assyria and Egypt.

It was introduced into the British Isles probably by the Romans of Julius Caesar's army. In the reign of Henry VIII, its cultivation was compulsory on every farm. In the seventeenth century the law compelled the burial of the dead in linen clothes, and the wearing of linen scarfs and hatbands at funerals.

They add that General Mannerheim has accepted conditionally command of the Finnish army.

The Bolsheviki according to the despatch, have taken 5,000 prisoners belonging to Admiral Kolchak's 11th division and 5,000 from his 13th division.
