Repairs to the Queen's Wharf Inspected—List of Arrivals and Departures.

Harbor Master Postlethwaite, accompanied by Deputy Harbor Master Hall and Engineer Kivas Tully, visited the Queen's wharf yesterday morning and inspected the new repairs made to the breakwater and wharf.

The Commissioners expressed themselves thoroughly satisfied with the progress of the work. It is expected the repairs will soon be completed, when a splendid lake front promenade will be at the disposal of the people.

The steamers Tilley, Arabian and Myles of the Lake Superior section of the Merchants' Line have started the season. One of the boats will leave Montreal every Monday and call at Toronto and Hamilton every Thursday during the season.

Mr. Donald McCuaig of the Customs House joined Mr. George Munro on Milloy's wharf yesterday, where he will do duty during the summer. On the first of the week the Customs office near the end of the wharf will be opened.

Large numbers are expected to patronize the Garden City on the 24th. The Retail Grocery Clerks' and Drivers' Association will hold their annual excursion to Oshawa.

The Mayflower and Shamrock of the Ferry Company's fleet were brought to the foot of Bay-street yesterday from the Northern docks. Both boats have been thoroughly overhauled and repainted, and look like new craft.

The Ocean is expected in this evening from Montreal on her way to Hamilton.

The Keewatin with 470 tons of coal, Rutherford with 504 tons for Elias Rogers, St. Joseph with 615 tons for Dickson & Eddy and Antelope with 684 tons for Conger Coal Company arrived yesterday.

The old pleasure steamer William Booth, which at one time belonged to the Salvation Army, is lying at Reid's shipyards, foot of Berkeley-street. It is the intention to fit her up this summer for active service.

The Lake Michigan is due at Milloy's wharf Sunday night from Montreal.

Mr. R. O. Mackay, agent at Hamilton for the Merchants' Line of steamers, was in the city yesterday.

The arrivals at Toronto Harbor yesterday were: Lakeside from St. Catharines, Macassa from Hamilton, Coral from lake shore, Empire State from Cleveland, Keewatin from Oswego, Rutherford from Oswego, St. Joseph from Oswego and Antelope from Charlotte.

Capt. Todd, inspector of hulls and equipment, and Mr. Shoemaker, inspector of boilers, were in the city yesterday. They inspected the Niagara Navigation Co.'s fleet for the United States Government.

HALF-BREEDS' CLAIMS.

The Government Has Appointed a Commission to Arrange a Basis of Action.

Ottawa, May 11.—Major James Walker of Calgary and J. A. Cote, Mr. Smart's private secretary, have been appointed a commission to deal with the half-breeds of the Northwest Territories born between July 15, 1870, and 1885, who may present their claims. The commissioners are to leave Edmonton for the north with the Indian Treaty Commission.

When the Half-breeds' Commission issued in 1885, it only empowered the commissioners to issue scrip to those born prior to July 15, 1870, the date of the transfer to the Hudson Bay Company. The half-breeds demurred to this, and have again and again pressed the claim that half-breeds born between July 15, 1870, and 1885 should receive the same treatment as those born prior to 1870, and the Territorial Legislature has on more than one occasion adopted and forwarded to the Government at Ottawa resolutions in support of this claim.

The Government has now decided that the Indian and half-breed rights should be extinguished at the same time.

TO SUPPRESS CRANKS

By the Object of Instructions Issued to Sanitary Superintendents of New York City.

New York, May 11.—President Murphy of the Board of Health has issued a letter, requesting the Sanitary Superintendent of Greater New York to use all means in their power to discover "uneducated, ignorant and evil-minded persons," who take advantage of their more ignorant neighbors, professing that they are endowed with wonderful healing faculties. If this system is allowed to proceed, great evil will result. President Murphy suggests that the medical societies be asked for advice in this endeavor to stamp out "faith healers."

The Thunderer in Toronto.

Cosmopolitans like the readers of The World will be glad to know that by the enterprise of Capt. R. M. Melville, R.N.R., of Toronto, The Times and the publications issued by the great press of Printing House Square, London, can be supplied to the educated of the Queen City. It is no disparagement to the press of the Dominion that the English newspaper is still par excellence the purest and the highest toned in the world, chiefest and most excellent is The Times. The Thunderer, the fearless Journal, that cannot be bought or bribed, the journal for the calm thinking and the educated. Captain Melville deserves our thanks for placing The Times easily within the reach of the citizens of Canada, and we can, without jealousy, commend The Times, in its Daily, Tri-weekly (The Mail) and weekly edition of The Times (The Times weekly edition) to our readers. Other particulars our gallant neighbor will supply.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me." ed

One Refused; One Granted.

The License Commissioners yesterday dealt with the long-standing application of James Williams for a transfer of his shop license from 502 West Adelaide-street to the corner of Sussex and Spadina-avenue. The Board decided to refuse the request.

The application of Mrs. Lush of 3 McCaul-street for leave to transfer her license to George P. Dixon, a commercial traveler, was granted.

WIREPULLING AT THE HALL.

If You Want the Job of Telephone Girl at the New City Hall Apply to Mayor Shaw.

IT IS ALL IN HIS OWN HANDS NOW.

One Girl Has the Show at Present, But Your Pull May Be Bigger—Civic Gossip.

The Mayor, with all his faults, is a great job-filler. Starting with Ald. Woods, for whom he secured the $700 position as controller at the beginning of the year, he has carried his point and his man without interruption since. In remembering his friends he is a veritable Dick Croker. Why he has been known this year to actually attend committee meetings twice in their interest. The first time was on behalf of Foreman Crawford of Berkeley-street fire hall. The second and the only other time this year that His Worship has lent his dignity to a committee meeting was yesterday.

There was a chivalric phase about his mission yesterday which made him and the aldermen with him irresistible. A meeting of the Property Committee had been called to decide upon a telephone system for the new City Hall. That was easy enough, but the question having resolved itself into a bigger one, as to who should appoint the telephone operator, the city or the Bell Telephone Company, on this point the committee needed the Mayor's guidance. A vote had been snatched at the last meeting to have the company engage and pay the young lady. This meant, according to a statement drawn up by Manager Dunstan, that the city should allow the company $450 a year over and above the $1750 a year for the local switch board service for salary.

Candor Reigned.

Ald. Bowman moved to accept the five-year contract for 47 phones, but to reverse the former decision and have the city engage its own operator. The mover candidly confessed that he had been pledged to a certain young lady and he intended to stand by his pledge.

For this confession Ald. Steiner was ungallant enough to reprimand him.

"Open confession is good for the soul, they say," Ald. Hallam began, "and I must confess too that a young——"

Ald. Bowman: Don't say another word. [Laughter.]

Ald. Hallam had his say, however, to the bitter end. "A nice-looking young lady called upon me and asked my support. I promised it her, and though I have forgotten her name I will stand by her too."

From Poetry to Prose.

The poetry of the situation was somewhat marred when Ald. Sheppard started talking cold figures. He urged again that the city should not pay for the county phones.

"Can't you make an arrangement with Mr. Dunstan," suggested Controller Lynd, "to pay for your own phones and have the county pay through the city for those it uses?"

"It would complicate the situation," was Mr. Dunstan's rejoinder.

"But look here," insisted Ald. Sheppard, "you ask us $1875 a year for a three-year contract or $2000 for one year. And yet the law only allows you $45 a phone in addition to the 11 desk phones at $18.50 each, and that only makes $1827 altogether. I don't think by that that Mr. Dunstan is offering us any snap."

He was told that it was the switchboard which caused the extra amount of cost.

Ald. Sheppard pacified, Ald. Lamb moved his amendment to have the company appoint the operator.

"Just one word about the operator," broke in the hitherto silent Mayor. "Every place I know of the patron pays the operator. Mr. Dunstan pays his operators I am told from $10 to $20 per month. Thus, if we allowed them $450 a year, the surplus would revert to the company, which would farm the girl out as it were. Now we want the girl to get it all, and I believe $450 a year is too much to pay when we can get an operator for the same as or a little less than the company pays."

Ald. Sheppard: But what are you going to do when she goes to dinner?

The Mayor: Oh you could get a girl at $30 a year to relieve her at lunch time.

Ald. Sheppard: And how about holidays?

The Mayor: Oh she would go on holiday time too for the money.

Mayor's Uncanny Presence.

Ald. Sheppard did not see it, but Ald. Lamb saw the Mayor. "It is the first time we have been graced with the presence of the Mayor this year," said he. "It shows that this question of an operator is a terribly weighty one. But it is gracious in the Mayor to give a young lady $30 a month because he knows her and only $50 a year to one he does not know." [Laughter.]

The Mayor: I didn't say that.

Ald. Lamb: Well, Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my amendment and move that we adjourn. We must get time to collect ourselves. Here are the Mayor and Controller Lynd and they are confusing us. [Laughter.]

But Chairman Dunn would not consent to the withdrawal and called a vote on the Lamb amendment to have the Telephone Company engage the telephone girl.

The vote stood: Yeas—Ald. Lamb, J. J. Graham, Sheppard, Stewart and Steiner—5.

Nays—Ald. Hanlan, Bowman, Hallam, Burns and the Mayor—5.

The chair pronounced it lost on a tie vote, but Ald. Lamb insisted on his voting, and Ald. Dunn voted with the Mayor.

Mayor Will Run the Business.

Before the Bowman motion was put Ald. Lamb started on a new tack. He moved for the substitution of a cable system. But this was a palpable flop, which, the Mayor said, "nobody but Ald. Lamb is capable of."

"It don't make much difference to me what young lady goes up there," said His Worship.

"But what about the divided authority if anything goes wrong?" Ald. Sheppard asked again.

"Oh, that don't matter."

The Bowman resolution was then put and only Ald. Lamb voted nay.

"Now," said Ald. Hallam, "what about the girl?"

Ald. Lynd snickered: "Oh, the Property Committee will appoint her."

"Not by a long chalk," grinned the Mayor.

And thus it goes. The young lady who has pledged a majority of Council will probably find that chivalry will do what nothing else seems to do, make them true to their promises.

The report of a sub-committee respecting the acceptance by the city from the Guild of Civic Art of Mr. G. A. Reid's mural decorations were adopted.

Must Dispose of Sewage.

In his annual report Medical Health Officer Sheard prods Council about an efficient sewage disposal system. He says in part: "It is a matter which cannot be very long delayed. With the improvements shortly to be made in the city's harbor, it becomes imperative that some definite plan should be agreed upon. Great loss will be incurred to the municipality unless it is settled what method is to be adopted to ultimately deal with the sewage of the city of Toronto, and to proceed with the subsequent work relating to the improvement of the waterfront, with due regard thereto."

He inclines to the filtration process, and further on makes comparison, by vital statistics, between the respective sanitary conditions of the Public and Separate schools, which are highly favorable to the latter.

Wants the Fences Down.

The Mayor is not exclusively attending to appointments. He despatched yesterday afternoon a letter and Solicitor Drayton to Solicitor MacMurchy of the C. P. R., and a letter to John Bell, Q. C., for the G. T. R., respecting the fences at Lansdowne-avenue. His Worship offers, if the railroads will remove the barriers, to place watchmen there at the city's expense until the whole matter is adjudicated upon by the Railway Committee of the Privy Council. All this is to be non-prejudicial to the case at issue.

McCoomb Working.

Appointments are all-engrossing nowadays. Controller Woods' chum, Mr. McCoomb, is lobbying hard again for the caretakership. Chivalry enters into it here again, but in this case, the lady is against Mr. McCoomb.

Is This Nepotism?

The Assessment Department Baseball Club is organized and is open to challenges from any good-looking team. The battery is Frame and Hubbard, two sons of aldermen. Manager Irwin (that is, John Irwin, and not the ex-manager of the Toronto Eastern Leaguers) will deem it a personal affront if any team of an average age of less than 12 years sends a defi.

The Option Closed.

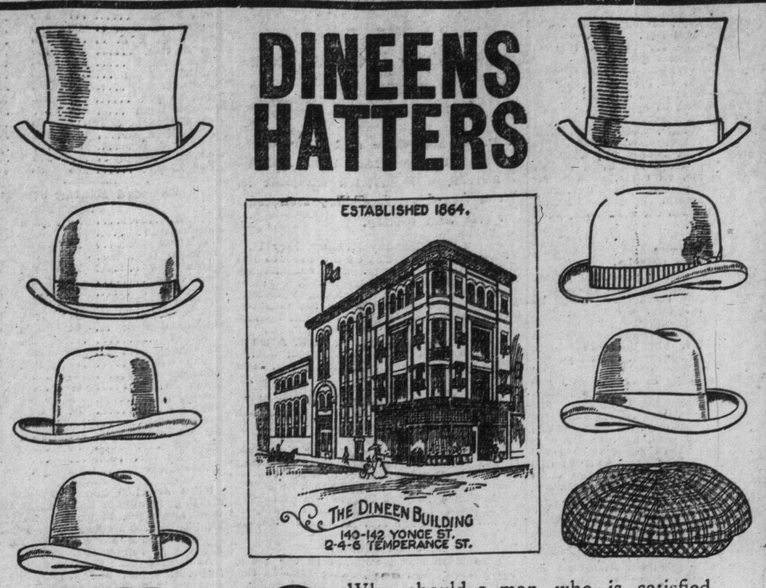
Whether or not Toronto is the home of a Sunlight Soap industry now depends on the City Council. Lever Bros. have closed the option on the Smith estate site over the Don, and Assessment Commissioner Fleming will submit his recommendation conceding what the company has asked, to Council, probably on Monday.

City Hall Notes.

The Argonaut Rowing Club wants a civic grant of $800 towards sending an eight to Henley.

The Mayor will have flags hoisted Thursday next, under the auspices of the U. E. Loyalists.

Ald. Denison is ill at his residence.



Why? Why should a man who is satisfied with his hatter go elsewhere? Why, for instance, should he venture among the surpassing temptations which greet him on every hand and at every turn in such wondrous profusion at Dineens? Why to get posted on correct styles, and all the styles—to see what is new in new hats—and what the leading hat house of Canada sets up as the highest exhibits of real value at the lowest cash prices.

No undue blandishments are employed at Dineens to win a man away from his hatter. No undue influences are exerted to persuade him to buy. The only duty of the salesmen at Dineens is to show HATS. The only thing that is needed is to see the hats at $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3 and up, at Dineens, to impress the visitor that his hatter, whoever he may be, is not quite up to the times with either the styles or the qualities that a house buying in larger quantities direct from the maker can sell at these prices.

A fresh shipment of new hats from London, Eng., and New York—just passed through the Customs—are shown at Dineens to-day at the special price of $2.50. They are regular $3 qualities.

In nine cases out of ten, those who are losing flesh, wasting away or going into decline—who feel sick and miserable all the time, are suffering either from impure blood or else their blood is thin and watery and lacking in tissue building elements.

A few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters will do such people more good than any other remedy they can take.

There is nothing like it for purifying the blood, making it rich, red and nourishing, so that pale, thin weak, run-down people put on flesh and soon gain health and strength.

MR. ALFRED J. PERRY, Cole's Island, Queen's Co., N.B., says: "I was sick and run down in health for three years and could never get anything to help me until I started taking Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I used six bottles of it, and am now as well as any man could wish.

"I believe if it had not been for B.B.B. I would have been dead, as I was so reduced in flesh I only weighed 130 pounds. Since using B.B.B. I have steadily gained in weight, as well as strength, and now tip the scales at 180 pounds.

"There is no doubt B.B.B. is the best medicine on earth."

VIOLIN WITH BROKEN NECK

Gained Its Owner $25 Damages From a Pawnbroker.

Judge Morgan and a jury heard an interesting case in the County Court yesterday. Hiram Hough sued H. Shakt, pawnbroker of 121 West Queen-street, for $100 damages to a violin. The instrument was pawned with Shakt for a loan of $1 in January last. When Hough redeemed the violin the neck was broken. The plaintiff valued the instrument at $200. The jury awarded Hough $25 damages.

The suit of Wolfe v. Lewis will be heard to-day.

The Demon Dyspepsia—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial. ed
