JENDRIE'S SPRINGSIDE LOOKS LIKE FAVORITE FOR KING'S PLATE

Covers the Full Distance in 2:12 1-5-Twelve Bells an Gold Galore Do Best Work for the Seagram Platers.

TORONTO, May 22.—The performance of George M. Hendrie's Springside featured the final work of the King's Plate candidates at Woodbine Park this horning. Skillfully rated, he covered the full Plate journey in 2:12 1-5, the fractional time being ½ in :25 1-5, ½ in :51 2-5, ¾ in 1:18 2-5, mile in 1:45 4-5, and the 1½ miles in 1:53 3-5. This was not only the best move of the morning, but it was equally as good as the best work here this season, and the goodbooking son of Charles Edward-Spring-well's is likely to be most fancied in the race for the guineas on Friday. Twelve Bells and Gold Galore performed the best of the Seagram Platers. The former led Gaelic Lass two lengths at the end of the 1½ miles in 2:16 2-5, with Scythian beaten off. They went the first ½ in :51, the ¾ in 2:16 2-5, with Scythian beaten off. They went the first ½ in :51, the ¾ in 1:17, and the mile in 1:45 3-5. The streak of bad luck of the James Butler stable continued, and his entries were twice made a favorite, only to be soundly beaten. Mr. Butler started both Ballad and Bally in the Atlantic Handicap, and only three horses were opposed to the entry. The distance was a mile and a sixteenth, and G. D. Widener's The Portuguese was allowed to make the pace with the other in close attendance in the run along the back stretch. Rounding the turn, Flitterrold cut lose and opened a gap of back stretch. Rounding the turn, Flittergold cut loose and opened a gap of four lengths. The effort was untimely, for Lyke, who had ridden a well-judged race on Commander J. K. L. Ross' Damrosch, went after the leader in the stretch and Damrosch wore down Flittergold to win by a length, with the latter eight lengths in front of Ballad.
