"One Paper in the Home is Worth A Million on the Highway"
MARSHALL FIELD.

The one buyer in the home in every case is the wife or mother, no matter whether it is a pair of shoes for Willie or a suit of clothes for Pa.

Hence—the advertising medium to reach the buyer is the one that goes into the home—delivered into the buyer's hands, not a "street sale" circulation.

The Times gets its circulation by carrier boy and for that reason has brought good results to its advertisers. Suppose we talk it over Mr. Prospective Advertiser.
