RECENT WEDDINGS

Kelly-Burns.
The beautiful little Sacred Heart church at Bathurst was the scene of a pretty and fashionable wedding on Tuesday afternoon when Rev. Father Wheaton united in marriage Anna Gertrude Burns, daughter of Mrs. P. J. Burns, of Bathurst, and George Louis Kelly, son of John T. Kelly, St. John. At 4 o'clock the bride entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was splendidly rendered by the organist, Miss Power. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her uncle, F. M. Burns, and was gowned in a handsome sand-colored broadcloth suit, wearing a white fox fur and old rose hat. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses and maiden hair fern.
Among the out-of-town guests were John T. Kelly, Fred W. Kelly and Miss Eugenie Kelly, of St. John, and Mrs. Hickey and children, of Chatham.

Gunter-Hayward.
The marriage took place yesterday morning at Riverside, Albert county, of Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Hayward, of that place, to Principal Gunter, of this city, principal of the manual training school. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. R. Hayward, of Fairville, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride was formerly a teacher at the Consolidated school at Riverside and several of her associates were present to witness the ceremony, together with the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The happy pair came to St. John last night and will take up their residence here.

Quigley-Moore.
The wedding took place in this city yesterday of Samuel Quigley and Francis R. Moore, both of Truro. Rev. R. H. Nobles performed the ceremony at his home, 41 Cedar street. The pair was unattended. The bride wore her traveling suit and after the honeymoon trip up the St. John river. Mr. Quigley is an employee of the I. C. R. and he and his bride have a host of friends who wish them every happiness.

Thorne-Lasky.
A very pretty wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lasky, being the marriage of their daughter, Bertha K. Lasky, to Ralph P. Thorne. The bride was beautifully attired in blue silk. The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends in a room tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens, apple blossoms and flowers. Rev. S. B. Culp of the Coburg street Christian church officiated. The happy pair will make their home in this city. The bride is an esteemed member of the Coburg street church.

Cuthbertson-Mitton.
At the First Baptist parsonage, Moncton, Rev. Bowley Green officiating, on Thursday evening, Miss Hattie Cora Mitton, daughter of Ralph Mitton, was united in marriage with Frank A. Cuthbertson, formerly of Amherst, but now of the C. G. R., of Moncton.

Hayward-Yeomans.
Last evening at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. F. Patrick Denison, 137 Wright street, Edward S. Hayward, son of Newton Hayward, of Goshen, Albert county, was united in marriage to Mary Yeomans, daughter of William Yeomans of this city. The pair were unattended and after their wedding trip will reside at Glen Falls.

Cadwalader-McGarry.
Announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret McGarry of Niagara Falls, Ont., and Donald Cadwalader of Niagara Falls, N.Y., has been received.

in Fredericton. The groom is a son of Professor and Mrs. Edward Cadwalader, who was for many years in the service of the Bank of Nova Scotia before going to Niagara Falls.

Richard P. Jackson of the firm of John Jackson & Sons, was united in marriage to Miss Lena Simonds last evening in the Waterloo street parsonage, by Rev. F. H. Wentworth. Following their return from an automobile trip through the provinces, they will reside in St. John.

At nine o'clock yesterday morning in the Church of the Assumption, Miss Annie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Haley, 18 Victoria street, West St. John, was united in marriage with nuptial mass by Rev. A. McDougall, C.S.C., acting pastor, to C. P. Dorton of this city. Miss Louise Dooly was bridesmaid and Sidney Haley was best man. They will reside at 77 Leinster street, after their return from a trip to Chatham.

RECENT DEATHS
Mrs. Wm. Osborne.
St. Martins, June 19.—The death occurred of Mrs. William Osborne at her home at West Quaco on Thursday, June 14, aged forty-eight years. She had been in failing health for the past year, having undergone an operation a year ago last May from which she never fully recovered. She was confined to her bed two months. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, two daughters, Miss Olive, at home, and Mrs. Richard Norris, of West Quaco; also her father, mother, three sisters and three brothers. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon by Rev. F. J. LeRoy, Interment at Mosher Hill cemetery.

Joseph Henderson
Joseph Henderson, a veteran trainman, who served on the first railway service from St. John, died yesterday at his home, Watson street, West St. John, following a lingering illness of more than six years' duration. He was sixty-six years of age and, needless to say, the greater portion of his life was spent in railroad. His two surviving brothers are both in railroad work, John, conductor on the I. C. R., and Frederick W., engineer on the C. P. R. After a long and honorable career Mr. Henderson was superannuated by the C. P. R. five years ago. He worked on railways for about forty-six years, commencing with the I. C. R., then to the St. John and Maine Railway, then to the
