QUEBEC VOTING FOR PROHIBITION

Wild Talk Features Closing of Exciting Two Weeks' Campaign; Armand Lavergae and Other Anti-Conscriptionists Confuse the

Quebec, Oct. 3-After two week's of arduous campaigning by the prohibition and anti-prohibition forces in this city, the struggle was brought to a close with two meetings tonight and services in a number of churches for the passing of the measure tomorrow.

The prohibitionists met in the Garde Champlain Hall while the antis assembled in St. Peter's Market Hall, the scene of so many political struggles for the past fifty years. The anti meeting was to have been held in the open on the Market square, but owing to rain, was held indoors and as a result only about three thousand people gained admission to the hall, while twice as many more were turned away.

tion as the greatest enemy of temperance and the greatest friend of alcoholism. He them made a comparison between the Scott act and the Gouin ficense system to show that the former was not a probability measure but a hypocritical one. He referred to the reported resignation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the best means of promoting and that at a time when all French-Canadians should be united around the Liberal leader for the defence of the Liberal leader for the defence of the increase of their worst enemies from Ontario to do his duty at the pools to morrow.

He denied the more of the measure will be taken of the prohibitionists that the question was a dogma of faith and the proof of that was that there was to be an election and every free man had the right of choosing. Prohibition was a germ were protesting against conscription.

The vote on the measure will be taken to conscription, against conscription, against conscription, against conscription, against conscription.

He asked where were the prohibition was a germ were protesting against conscription, against conscription.

He asked where were the prohibition as a germ were protected examined on the conscillation and every free man had the right of choosing. Prohibition was a germ were protecting against conscription.

Don't Avoid Corns But Don't Keep Them

With dainty footwear, corns can hardly be avoided. But they matter little when you know the way to end them.

As soon as a corn starts, attach a Blue-jay and forget it. The corn will never pain. In two days, if it is a new corn, it will disappear. Sometimes old corns need a section of the corn o ond application. It is almost as simple as removing a dirt spot. Blue-jay is applied in a iiffy. It fits the toelike a glove. move it — in 48 hours — the whole corn is done for. Blue-jay is a scientific method. A noted chemist invented it, and a famous laboratory prepares it.

It is not mussy, it is not harsh. It centers action on the corn alone, so it doesn't lead to soreness. And it is sure. No corn can resist it. Its millions of TLEARNESS of head depends upon cleanliness of body-inside and out. If men of active minds were as active with their bodies, the chances are that they would not suffor from billousness, sour stomach, constipation and kindred disorders. It is to such men that Eno's Fruit Salt proves its value as a gentle, safe and unfalling regulator of the digestive and eliminative system.

Being a natural aperiont—that is, composed of all cleansing and tonic elements of ripe fruit juices-it performs its work in a normal way without irritation or harmful reaction. It clears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to activity, and produces a delightul feeling of liveliness and vigor that can only arise from a sound, active physical condition.
