

BERESFORD, GRAND OLD SEA DOG

Rumors are that Admiral Lord Beresford will soon be actively employed in command of reserves in the North Sea. There is no confirmation of this, but the photograph taken as the aged admiral was entering St. Paul's to the naval memorial service, shows that he has not lost his youthful cheerfulness and vigor.

Brilliant Spectacle in Buffalo—Fund For New Temple For Minneapolis

Buffalo, July 11.—The most brilliant spectacle of the 42nd annual session of the Neophytes of the Mystic Shrine occurred today, as the host city by the city of Buffalo, presided, Mayor Furman welcomed the shriners and J. Putnam Stevens of Portland, Maine, delivered the annual address as imperial potentate of the order.

Imperial officers will be elected tomorrow, all being advanced, according to custom, Henry F. Neidringham of St. Louis, the present deputy, becoming imperial potentate.

Zubrah Temple which appears to have secured the session of 1917 for Minneapolis, celebrated today by raising $10,000 as the nucleus of a fund to build a new temple to be completed before the opening of next year's imperial council meeting.

REV. NEIL McLAUGHLIN RETURNS TO ST. JOHN

Portland Methodist Church Gets Back Former Pastor

Rev. Neil McLaughlin arrived in the city today on the Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Carquois, to assume the pastorate of Portland Methodist church, of which he had the charge several years ago. On leaving St. John he removed to Fredericton and, after a successful pastorate there, was transferred to Bermuda.

Mr. McLaughlin is accompanied by his wife and son. During his former pastorate in St. John he made many friends here and left a deep impression on the community. He will receive a warm welcome as he takes up his new duties.

The Royal Gazette of Hamilton, Bermuda, devotes a column of space to an account of a congregational meeting at which members of his last flock bade farewell to their pastor. The Gazette says:—"After two years of faithful, earnest labor, which has left its impress for good on every branch of church work, Mr. McLaughlin has been called to return north to Wesley church, deeply regretted that so soon they are to lose a pastor who has admirably adapted himself to a Bermuda charge and who, with his wife, has endeavored himself to the entire membership."

SERIOUS CHARGE IS MADE AGAINST SOLDIER

Detective Thomas Barrett left yesterday for Nova Scotia to place under arrest Mr. Harry Ellis, said to come from Sussex, on a serious charge. The one said to have laid the complaint is reported to be under fourteen years of age and belongs to this county. The soldier belongs to a Nova Scotia regiment and will be brought here, it is said, to stand trial.

ACCIDENT. Roy McKenzie, an employee of the Standard Creamery, Main street, met with a painful accident this morning. He was operating an electric churn when his clothing became caught in the machinery and his arm was quite badly lacerated. His employer Edwin I. Robinson drove him in his automobile to Dr. Roberts, who dressed the injured member.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Last evening little friends of Robert Ross gathered at his home, 186 Wright street, to celebrate his ninth birthday. He was made the recipient of many pretty little gifts. Refreshments were served, and a jolly evening was spent by all.

DIED IN BOSTON. Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Charlotte (Lottie) Bell, beloved wife of John R. Gray. She died in Boston on July 7, and is survived by her husband and four children, two sisters and one brother. Mrs. I. Thompson and Mrs. W. L. Stewart are the sisters, and W. W. Bell of the Consolidated Rubber Co. is the brother. Mrs. Thompson has been with her sister for several weeks.

PICNICS TODAY. Exmouth street church Sunday school picnic is being held today at Crystal Beach. The steamer May Queen left this morning and again this afternoon with people for the picnic grounds. Portland Methodist church Sunday school picnic is also being held today at Grand Bay. Trains which left this morning and afternoon carried a large number of picnickers. Energetic committees had arranged games and amusements.

ST. JOHN MAN THERE. Thos. Nelson of St. John was a recent visitor at the big exhibit of Southern California products maintained free to the public in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. He saw the lectures, moving pictures and concert that are a part of the daily programme. The exhibit is the largest of any in the country maintained by a commercial organization. Mr. Nelson expects to visit the Panama-Pacific international exposition at San Diego, which will remain open all year.

MARRIED IN TORONTO. In Toronto on Saturday, June 24, at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Mabel M. Clarke, daughter of William Clarke of Muskegon, was united in marriage to Kenneth Forrester Clark, formerly of the Bank of Nova Scotia and son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clark of West St. John. The bride was becomingly attired in blue tulle silk with white hat and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Little Berta, McClure niece of the bride, was flower girl. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church by Professor Law of Toronto University in the presence of relatives and friends. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's brother, Douglas Clarke. The dining room was decorated with pretty orchids and lilies. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride, including a check, a case of Sterling silver, cut glass and a diamond bracelet. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at 538 College street, Toronto.

EVIDENCE ON DEATH OF MARGARET WARD

Mrs. Pitfield Said to be on Her Way to St. John

(Boston Globe, Monday)

Further evidence was presented to the grand jury today in the investigation of the death of Margaret Ward of Peabody. These witnesses testified that Harrison and Lieut. Bagley of Salem; Mrs. Arthur O'Neil of Peabody; and Justice W. H. Fay of Peabody were before the grand jury in regard to a story that a person connected with the case tried to reach him by telephone at his home. Investigation by the police disclosed that at the time of the alleged telephone call, Judge Fay and his wife were not at home.

J. J. Blatchford of 18 Highland avenue, Lynn, where Charles O'Connell, one of the men under arrest, has been staying since July 4, also testified.

The grand jury adjourned at noon till tomorrow morning, when additional witnesses will be called. District Attorney Pelletier, who is conducting the inquiry into the case, has been advised by Elizabeth Pitfield, for whom a search is being made, that she is on her way to St. John, N. B., where her brother lives. Her eldest daughter, Marion, is also in St. John. No cases have been received regarding the whereabouts of Mrs. Frothingham.

FURTHER REPORTS OF CURES AT ST. ANNE

Seven cures are reported among the Nova Scotians attending the recent pilgrimage at St. Anne de Beauséjour. One of them was that of Miss Grace Hardman of Halifax, whose mother was delighted to receive from her while the party was on the way home the terse message:

Miss Hardman had been crippled since she was two years of age and she is now eighteen years of age, and she walked until last week only when aided by a crutch. She required the use of the crutch to make the pilgrimage and while at the shrine she felt herself

News of Maritime Men In The War

Six volunteers were sworn in at the Fredericton recruiting office, Monday.

Of these latter five were pipers for the 286th Battalion (New Brunswick Killies), but there were three more volunteers who are undergoing the medical training at the training camp at Camp Borden, N.S. Gilmore of St. John.

Last week no fewer than eighteen recruits were enlisted in York county, the largest number for nearly two months. On Friday night Lt. Cross and Sgt. Major H. T. Brewer secured eight recruits at McAdam Junction for No. 1 Construction Battalion, the following being their names: Howard H. McDonald, 20, Newton R. Hay, 21, Carl H. Speedy, 20, Joseph F. Furlow, 48, and M. G. Eda, 19, all of McAdam Junction; Cecil May, 21, and Arthur M. May, 20, of Hoyt Station.

Prisoners in Germany.

Mrs. Charles Saunders, of St. Mary's, received a telegram stating that her son, Private John Saunders, who had been previously reported missing, was now officially reported a prisoner of war.

Private Saunders was among the Fredericton and York county men reported missing on June 2nd. He was reported missing on the first week of June. Mrs. Andrew Bryce is in the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. The husband of a former Fredericton girl was one of the members of the Canadian Mounted Rifles who were taken prisoner by the Germans at the Third Battle of Ypres early in June. A letter from Mitchell, Perthshire, Scotland, says:

"Mrs. Andrew Bryce has received a postal from her husband that he is a prisoner in Germany, having been taken in a battle around Ypres on the first week in June. Mrs. Andrew Bryce is at present in Scotland with her two children, Miss Maudie and Master Murray Bryce. Mrs. Bryce is a daughter of Thomas Murray of Fredericton. Mr. Bryce was a member of the Sixth Canadian Mounted Rifles in St. John last year."

Have Gone to the Front.

Another Fredericton officer who has been in training in England with the 64th Battalion has gone to the front. Lt. Col. Montgomery Campbell, who has joined a Nova Scotia Scotia battalion now in the trenches in France. Other New Brunswick officers who were with the 64th Battalion have also gone to the front during the past few weeks and have joined units now fighting in the trenches. Among these is Lieut. Donald B. Winslow, who has joined the Mounted Rifles at the front. He went over to France last month and has been in the trenches with his battalion. Lieut. Winslow, in a letter to relatives, states that he dined on June 10th with Lieut. "Bun" Beckwith, who formerly was a well known commercial man. An item reporting him missing was first published by Halifax newspapers and later republished in this city. The report had Lieut. Beckwith as missing since June 2nd and was thus untrue.

PATRIOTIC CAUSES

The weekly serving of the Cathedral Church of Red Cross being held on Wednesday afternoon in St. Vincent de Paul Society rooms in Waterloo street, and as the need of garments and socks is now urgent, members are earnestly requested to attend tomorrow or call for work or yarn.

PERSONALS

Battalion. Recently, however, he succeeded in transferring to the artillery branch of the service.

Bun Beckwith a Prisoner

Halifax Chronicle.—A member of the Dalhousie unit in a letter written just before the unit left England for France and received here yesterday, speaks of having met "Bun" Beckwith some time previously and refers to the fact that at the time of writing "Bun" was a prisoner with the Germans, having been taken by them on June 2nd.

Rejected Too Many

Major Mercereau, of the 120th, is now in Campbellton, trying to re-enlist men who were formerly turned down by the North Shore Battalion. It was ascertained when the regiment reached Valcartier that the battalion doctor had been applying a much more severe test than the H. Q. exacted, and that in this manner about one hundred men with very trifling defects had been lost to the unit in Campbellton alone.

May Join Kilties

Fredericton Gleaser.—Lieut. W. E. Howe, formerly an officer of the 112th Nova Scotia Battalion, who toured Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island last winter recruiting, and is considered one of the most successful recruiting men east of Montreal, is confined to his hotel in Bridgewater, N.S., with an attack of gall stones, and it is reported that an operation will be necessary to relieve his condition. Lieut. Howe is a son of Rev. Mr. Howe, formerly of Westmorland county, and was himself a geyrtyman before enlisting. He, however, laid aside the black "cloth" to don the khaki. Owing to his illness he has been forced to give up his commission in the 112th N. S. Battalion, and it is understood that in a short time he will join Col. Guthrie's 286th kiltie battalion.

Twice Wounded

Private Lewis Raymond Sheldon of Fredericton, has been officially reported wounded. He was admitted to No. 25 General Hospital at Boulogne on June 29 with gunshot wounds in the chest. This is the second time Pte. Sheldon has been wounded, having returned to the trenches after being wounded in the shoulder last January. He is a son of Pte. Alfred Sheldon, who is now with the 12th Battalion in England. The late Lt. Sheldon was a member of the 12th Battalion in the Royal Canadian Regiment stationed in Fredericton, and he has one other son, Pte. Rupert Sheldon, at the front with one of the Canadian Highlander battalions. Pte. Sheldon enlisted in Montreal, having been employed in one of the banking institutions in that city. He was formerly in the employ of the Bank of New Brunswick in this city, and is well known here.
