

The Evening Star

VOL. X, No. 197

ST. JOHN N. B., TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1915

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

GERMANS ADVANCING; ITALIANS WEAKENING

Enemy Giving Ground Northeast of Ypres—Italians Have Occupied 37 Villages

London, June 1.—The British troops are advancing on St. Julien, according to a message from the correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France. The German line is said to be greatly weakened and is giving ground northeast of Ypres before vigorous attacks which have been preceded by an effective bombardment of their trenches.

ITALIANS PUT AUSTRIANS TO FLIGHT

Rome, June 1.—The following official statement of the operations was issued last night: "After our vigorous offensive action upon the plateau of the Austrians on the front of the Monte Croce on the 29th, which dominated the entire position, we have occupied the Austrians some time ago ordered a fortress built."

SERBIA AGAIN TAKES PART IN THE FIGHTING

Little Nation Scores Success Against Austrian Troops

Belgrade, June 1.—The resumption of military activity by Serbia against Austria is indicated in an official announcement today. The military authorities claim a successful action of the Serbian army against Austrian troops in the Adirondack and Gloucester House in London, England. Considerable military activity by the Serbians has been noted also on the Albanian front.

DEADLOCK STILL AND PEOPLE WALK

No Sign of Settlement of City and Street Railway Matter Today

It is nice weather for walking and that is the only consolation of the street car lines can extract from the situation. There is no change so far today in the deadlock between the company and the city department of public works over the crossing at Sydney and Princess streets. The rails are still out and the service continues to be interrupted while passengers are forced to alight from one car, walk around the obstruction and board another.

CORINTHIAN ACROSS WITH MORE SOLDIERS

Montreal, June 1.—The Allan liner Corinthian is reported to have arrived safely in England with a large number of Canadian soldiers of the second division, including the fourth general hospital, Toronto; Ammunition Column of the Fourth Field Artillery Brigade, division Ammunition Column and cyclist corps of Toronto. The Corinthian sailed from Montreal on May 16.

BANK HOLIDAY BUT BUSINESS HOUSES IN CITY WILL BE OPEN

Although Thursday is the King's birthday, and a statutory holiday, it will not be generally observed as a holiday in St. John. The banks, the customs house and other government offices will be closed, and the school children will have a day off, but others will work as usual. Inquiries of prominent business houses today brought the reply that they would be open for business as usual. This is in accordance with the request of the king that there should be no special celebration on June 8.

HIS ARM CUT OFF

Newcastle, N. B., June 1.—While working in Hilsa's mill this morning, Joseph Jones of Newcastle had his right hand caught in the edge, and so badly crushed that amputation was necessary.

EARL OF JERSEY DEAD; AGED SEVENTY

London, June 1.—Victor Albert George Villiers seventh Earl of Jersey died last night. He was born in 1845. He served as governor general of New South Wales in 1898-99.

ARRIVED AT GLASGOW

The Allan liner Corinthian arrived at Glasgow at 8.30 a. m. today.

VANDERBILT FORTUNE FOR INFANT SONS

First Wife's Boy Also Well Provided For

Widow Gets $3,000,000 OUTFRIT

Also Receives Income of $5,000,000 and Some Property—Legacies of Boys in Trust Till They Reach 35

New York, June 1.—The bulk of the estate of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who perished on the Lusitania, and which has been estimated at upward of $50,000,000, is left in trust to his infant sons.

BRIDES OF FIRST DAY OF THE MONTH OF BRIDES

The first day of June is ushered in again to the strains of wedding music. The number of marriages during the month surely shows that during the spring time the young men's fancy has been turning in the usual direction.

W. B. CAMPBELL, V. S., DIES SUDDENLY

Prominent in His Profession and Respected in Community

Walter B. Campbell, V. S., died suddenly this morning from heart trouble. He was engaged operating on a horse owned by Mrs. G. H. G. in a barn of Long View, when he suddenly fell dead.

THE POLICE AND THE INTERCOLONIAL CASE IS GONE INTO

The case of Detective Worrell, of the city force, and Constable Roberts of the C. P. R. was discussed at the police court this morning. The former testified that on two occasions Roberts interfered with him in the discharge of his duty.

AMERICANS LEAVE GERMANY

Conditions Grow Intolerable and Many Move to Switzerland

London, June 1.—During the last few days a positive exodus of Americans from Germany to Switzerland, has been taking place, says the Morning Post's Bern correspondent.

GIVE $100,000 FOR MACHINE GUN BATTERY FOR THE 3RD CONTINGENT

Ottawa, Ont., June 1.—The sum of $100,000 has been given for a machine gun battery for the third contingent by Mrs. M. A. C. Rankine, 801, Mrs. George F. Smith, 810, Mrs. J. W. Sealy, 110, Mrs. W. B. Benson Robinson and Edward Ellis, sale of badges, 820, Mrs. Frederick E. Barker, 85, Mrs. W. H. Campbell, 85, Mrs. G. W. Barker, 85, Mrs. F. B. de Mill, 85, Mrs. M. W. Davison, 85, Mrs. J. W. Davison, 85, Mrs. J. W. Davison, 85.

ST. JOHN BROTHERS MEET ON BATTLEFIELD

TOOK PROVISIONS; THEN SANK THE STEAMER

Portugal Captain Describes Encounter With Submarine—Two British Vessels Similarly Treated

Brest, June 1.—Captain Corio of the Portugal steamer "Yves" which was torpedoed recently by a German submarine, between the Scilly Islands and Cape Finisterre, today described the attack.

PEACE TALK IN THE TURKISH CAPITAL; WOULD OPEN STRAITS

British Submarine's Visit Causes Terror—The Queen Elizabeth at Gibraltar—French Teach German Consul a Lesson

Athens, June 1.—The latest address from Constantinople is that the late cruiser "Sultana Selim" formerly the "Queen" has been virtually dismantled. Recent developments at the Dardanelles are described as having cast a gloom over the Turkish capital, where a strong current of opinion is in favor of opening the straits and negotiating for peace.

BRITISH SUBMARINE BLOCKS TURKS' PLANS

London, June 1.—An Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says it has been learned there that the transportation of Turkish troops to the straits has been interrupted by the operations of a British submarine, which is operating in front of Constantinople.

MORE SIGN BUT MORE WANTED

New Recruits For the 55th Battalion and in Other Places—Some More For the Rifles

More names were added to the roll of the 55th battalion this morning for service overseas. Nine men were finally passed upon, while some others are awaiting medical examination, and others are waiting for their names to be called.

WOMEN HELP TO MAKE SHELLS FOR THE GUNS

Barrow, Eng., June 1.—At the Vickers Sons and Maxim works 600 women employed in the manufacture of munitions have given such satisfaction that the firm has decided immediately to employ an additional thousand. Other firms are expected to follow the example.

CONGRATULATED BY ONE OF GENERAL FRENCH'S STAFF

A letter received by William Merrick of Erin street, today from his son, John, fighting in France with the first contingent, told of himself and other St. John boys being well, or as he said "in the pink of condition." He said they had just come through some heavy fighting, and when it was over one of the staff of General French came personally to their lines to congratulate them on the valuable assistance they had rendered. The unit was now back for reinforcements after three days and nights in the trenches.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Bishop, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis.—The high area is still centered north of the Great Lakes, but there are now some indications that it will drift eastward as a shallow depression moves northward from the southern states.

The weather is fine and moderately warm in all parts except British Columbia and Alberta, where it is showery.

Maritime.—Moderate westerly winds, fine and moderately warm today and on Wednesday.

New England Forecasts.—Fair tonight and Wednesday, light west winds.