BASEBALL

Boston vs. Vets Tonight.
Dick Casey's Boston nine will clash with the Vets on St. Peter's baseball field this evening. This will be the first opportunity afforded local fans to see the Boston team in action. It is expected that Arthur Kling, who pitched a great game here last year, will be on the mound for the Bostonians, while Kirkpatrick will start for the G. W. V. A. nine. It is expected that Gossell will catch for the latter team as Buchanan's hand is still sore from a recent injury.

City Amateur League Results.
In the City Amateur League last evening the St. John's and St. George's teams met on Queen Square diamond. West St. John, and the game ended in a 4-4 tie. Ross was on the mound for St. George's and Corcoran for St. John's.

On Your Vacation
You'll Enjoy
Hatchway

It's the little things that exasperate. You can cut out several of life's little annoyances by wearing Hatchway. It won't bind nor pull. There are no buttons to come off so you can leave your mending kit at home.

1,000 stores will show you Hatchway—balbriggan in five styles and cool athletic garments in five qualities. Ask your dealer to show you the famous "overlap" that does away with buttons.

6 Reasons for Hatchway:
1. Fits perfectly—always.
2. Quick on and off.
3. No mending because no buttons or button holes.
4. Easier and cheaper to launder.
5. Longer wear—no strain or friction.
6. Every garment guaranteed.

Sets French Record.
Paris, May 28.—Roger Conti, clicking off 642 points without a miss, has established a new French high-run record in an 182 ballline billiard match. The previous record, established by Willie Hoppe in 1910, was 622. Conti was playing in a regular match and fulfilled all the necessary conditions imposed by the French Billiard Federation. It is announced that his record will be officially recognized.
