A BIG HEALTH WEEK IN APRIL FOR PROVINCE

April 24 to 30 Time of Campaign—Notable Speakers to Be Here.

Fredericton, N. B., March 22.—Hon. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Health, announced this morning that a New Brunswick Health week had been arranged from April 24 to 30, to begin on Sunday afternoon. Announcement of the week will be made from churches, schools, the pupils' Rotary Clubs and other public bodies have been asked to cooperate. Public meetings will be held in prominent health authorities of the United States and Canada will give addresses. Included in the number will be George B. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation and the International Health Board and Dr. C. J. Hastings of Toronto.

There is a two fold of the health week education and publicity on the one hand and the inauguration of three provincial societies on the other. These societies will deal with tuberculosis, child welfare and general or social hygiene.

Attempts along this line have been made in other provinces and in the United States, but an effort on so comprehensive a scale never has been tried.

Sun Inspector Fraser Saunders and Chief Police Finley, Monday night visited a grocery store of George Cape, 173 George street, and made a seizure of two cases of liquor. The premises were seized as a dwelling. No arrest was made.

PRY IS SENT UP FOR TRIAL

Moncton, N. B., March 22.—Ezekiel Berry of Forest Hill, Albert county, charged with the murder of his wife, was this morning committed for trial at Hopewell Cape. The preliminary hearing was held before John W. Gaskin, J. P., of Coverdale. The prisoner was taken to jail at Hopewell Cape today.

IN MEMORIAM

MORRISON—In sad but loving memory of my dear wife, Hazel Irene Morrison, who died March 22nd, 1920.

Through all the pain at times she smiles A smile of heavenly mirth, And when the angels called her home She smiled farewell to earth.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure, Earth the lonely casket keeps, And the soul beams long to linger Where our darling Hazel sleeps.

AUNT MINNIE

EMERY—In loving memory of Jennie Mildred Emery, who departed this life March 22, 1919.

FAMILY.

MORRISON—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Hazel I. Morrison, who departed this life March 22, 1920.

Day by day we sadly miss her, Friends may think the wound has healed, Little do they know the sorrow That within our hearts is concealed.

PARENTS, BROTHER AND SISTERS.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN.

MR. HOUSE PETERS

IMPERIAL TOMORROW

Eminent Star Returns in Van Loan's Marvelous Production, "The Great Redeemer"

Possibly no player in the cinematographic realm has a larger following of admirers than the handsome society and athletic actor House Peters, whose enforced absence from the screen has been a matter of much regret for about two years.

Tomorrow the Imperial will present this star in Maurice Tourneur's setting of H. H. Van Loan's deeply spiritual and wildly exciting drama, "The Great Redeemer"—a story that caused much comment in type, and which is certain to stir people greatly as a picture. The Imperial will also have an Edgar comedy and the Canadian Pictorial.

ACTS OF MERIT AT OPERA HOUSE

Great Dramatic Sketch, Thrilling Wire Offering, Classic Singing and Dancing.

The new programme at the Opera House tonight should be of more than ordinary interest. It comprises great dramatic sketches, a wire offering of merit, classic singing and dancing, and instrumental selections.

The acts are as follows:—George Edwards and company, in a thrilling dramatic sketch, "Homer," a story of a Greek hero.

Scientific demonstration of difficult feats on a wire; James H. Cullen, in a feature comedy singing and talking, offering, which they term "The Man from the West," George Mack and Mildred McLean, in a great comedy offering entitled "Somewhat Different," Francis and Leary, in a singing and dancing offering, including beautiful solo selections. There will also be another episode of the motion picture serial, "Fighting Fate," which is featuring William Duncan.
