PRESBYTERY COMPLETES WORK

The final session of the quarterly meeting of the St. John Presbytery was held yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's church, with the moderator, A. J. W.
Black, in the chair. Fifty-three congregations were represented. The next regular meeting will be held in September.
Communications were received from the secretary of the general board of the church asking that nominations for editor of the Sunday school publications be made by the presbytery. It was unanimously decided by the meeting that the name of Rev. F. Baird, M.A., be submitted.

The reports of the committee on cooperation in Charlotte county were submitted by Rev. W. W. Malcolm. Hon.
J. G. Forbes also reported that the records of the presbytery from 1884 to 1891 were in the care of John Willet. It was ordered that these records be secured and that permission be asked to place them in the vault of St. David's church.

The report of A. N. Gillis, Sunday school secretary on the Upper St. John River, was received and Mr. Gillis' work was highly commended.
The missions at Fort Kent and St.
Francis were united into a single congregation, the union to take effect at the resignation of Rev. S. R. Prince from Fort Kent after the third Sunday in August. Rev. W. K. Read, of Grand Falls, was appointed moderator of the united congregations, he also declared the pulpit vacant the fourth Sunday in August.

Rev. F. S. Dowling presented a call from Norton addressed to Rev. G. S.
Sears, who has been supplying there. It was accompanied by a guarantee of a $1,000 salary from the people. Application was made to the home missions board for $500. The induction of Rev. G.
Sears was fixed for July 20 at Norton.
Rev. F. S. Dowling is to preside at the induction; Rev. Mr. Beavis, of Lorneville, is to address the minister and Rev.
Mr. Graham will address the people.

What "luscious" means

The Standard Dictionary says:
"Luscious, luscious, Very grateful to the senses of taste; rich, sweet and delicious; hence, delicious, etc." "Luscious, luscious, to the senses, or to the mind; as, luscious fruit, luscious odors, etc."

The Century Dictionary says:
"Very sweet, succulent or savory; delicious; very pleasant to taste; hence, extremely pleasing to any of the senses or to the mind, enticely delightful, etc."

Webster's Dictionary says:
"Sweet; delicious; very grateful to the taste; luscious, etc."

The Encyclopaedia Britannica says:
"Luscious, luscious, Very sweet; sweet in a great degree; delightful to the taste, etc."

But LANTIC means:
"Luscious means—Brown Sugar."

Folks delight in Brown Sugar goodies

At the fragrant memory of old-time dishes, what eager lips are smacked! It is taste that lingers longest in the mind.

Sweet and luscious to the palate, is the appeal of LANTIC Brown Sugar. Sweet from the actual amount of pure sugar it contains—luscious from other constituents of the cane juice left in it, bodies which represent the "bouquet" of the cane juice.

For tea and coffee and ordinary preserving purposes, where a conflict of flavors is to be avoided—LANTIC Fine Granulated, of course. But where rich flavor is desirable, LANTIC Brown gives to baking and desserts the characteristic molasses taste which is a big improvement. It makes good dishes great!

Spices and LANTIC Brown are on the friendliest terms. Spiced cookies, and cup cakes, and all sweet pickles or spiced fruits are better when made with Brown Sugar. All dishes containing raisins, dates, figs or currants develop a new deliciousness from the use of LANTIC Brown.

So a little different. Add LANTIC lusciousness to your baking!

LANTIC Brown Sugar should really cost more than white—if deliciousness is the true test of value—BUT YOU GET IT FOR LESS. Your grocer has luscious LANTIC Brown sugar only in 100 lb. sacks, but he will give you any quantity you ask for.

BOARD OF COMMERCE TO CONTINUE WORK

Ottawa, July 6.—The new commissioners of the board of commerce held their first meeting today to discuss future operations. It was decided in view of the questions raised as to their going to function under part two of the combines and fair prices act, 1919, which deals particularly with hoarding and taking unfair profits on the sale of necessaries of life, not to institute of their own motion on any new investigations with respect to these matters but to continue the enquiries already under way.
This course was adopted so that valuable time may not be lost between now and the determination of jurisdiction by the privy council, in preparation for public hearing.

The above statement, it is emphasized, is not to be understood to mean that if complaints of profiteering in necessaries of life be at any time received by the board, from any part of Canada, they will not be investigated. The board of commerce will take the usual steps to deal with these complaints, as the board takes the stand, notwithstanding the recent submission of its stated case to the supreme court of Canada now in appeal to the privy council that it has jurisdiction to operate under the profit controls of the combines and fair prices act, and it will deal with persons found guilty of such infractions of the act.

The board of commerce, the commissioners say, has unquestioned jurisdiction concerning the investigation and restraint of combines, monopolies, trusts and mergers which constitute part of the combines and fair prices act, 1919, and it is proposed to proceed with the hearing and determination of certain alleged combines cases, trial of which had to be postponed in April owing to the dis-organization of the late board.

The first statement issued by the newly constituted board, combining the above information is signed by W. W.
White, chief commissioner; P. A. Acland and G. A. Dillon, commissioners.

SIR THOMAS WHITE WILL NOT ACCEPT

Matter of Government Leadership Still Very Much Unsettled.

Toronto, July 6.—Sir Thomas White definitely stated tonight that he could not accept the leadership of the government even if it should be offered to him.
He arrived here this evening from Muskoka and is on his way to Ottawa, where he has been asked as a privy councillor and member of parliament to confer on the political situation.

To a representative of the Canadian Press he repeated the statement which he has made on several previous occasions that he was not a candidate for any office in the government and that his name was not available for consideration.
He said that he retired from the government a year ago on the grounds, first that his health had been seriously impaired by the continued strain of his official duties. He would not allow business or financial considerations to stand in the way of public duty, but with the matter of health it was different as the public interest itself was there involved.

It is clear that he does not regard himself as physically fit to undertake the heavy duties and responsibilities of the premiership, even if the post had been offered to him, which he made very plain was not the case.

Sir Thomas added that he was confident that an acceptable leader would be found within the personnel of the present cabinet, and he will be prepared to support loyally the new leader.
