THINK IT BURGLARS' WORK.
It is thought there was an attempt at burglary last night in the store of J. J. Lalachur in Germain street. When Mr. Lalachur visited his store this morning he found that a large pane of glass in the door in Market street had been smashed. He made a search of the store, but found nothing missing, or nothing to indicate that the would-be burglars had made an entrance. The police report having found the door broken open last night, and the fact that the thieves were frightened away by the breaking of the glass.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Hearty Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Hawker

MARRIED NOV. 13, 1862

Eight Children With Them Today In Celebration of the Happy Anniversary—Have Good Wishes of Very Many Friends

Just fifty years ago today an interesting wedding was performed in this city by Rev. J. Prince, then pastor of Portland Methodist church, when he united in marriage Miss L. T. Dale and William Hawker, both of whom were then well known among the younger people of their time, and popular with all. Today they are far better known in the city, merited esteem and best wishes of a large circle of friends and enjoy the best of health, and are receiving the hearty congratulations of their many friends upon the happy and memorable event which it is their fortunate lot to observe. They spent the day quietly with their family, and a reunion of the eight surviving children, and their twenty grandchildren taking place at their home in Charlotte street.

Mr. Hawker was born in Little Barrington, Gloucester county, England, and came here in January, 1862, on the Allan liner "Hibernia," with the 16th Foot Regt. at the time of the Trent affair, having charge of the sick. He purchased his discharge from the army a short time later on receiving the appointment to take charge of the hospital which was then being completed. He changed his mind about this position, however, and a little later returned to his home in the Three Lamps. Success greeted his efforts and the business grew rapidly, until a little later in life he removed to the premises occupied at present under the firm name of Wm. Hawker & Sons, in Prince William street, being assisted in the business by some of the boys who had come to the family circle.

On November 13, 1862, young Mr. Hawker married the young woman who today is his country, and who had come to this country in 1852 when she was a mere child, aboard the sailing vessel "Commodore," of which the late Captain Pritchard had command. Eleven children blessed their home, eight of whom are still living, and today rejoicing with their parents upon the happy anniversary.

There were six sons and five daughters, of whom the following survive: S. H. and Joseph B. of this city, Wm. C. of Waterville and J. Thomas of Montreal; Mrs. J. B. Thompson of this city, Mrs. E. M. Robson of Digby, N. S., and the Misses Elizabeth and Ethel at home. All are now in the city to unite today with their father and mother in the celebration in honor of their fiftieth anniversary.

The showers wishes of their family and very many friends are that Mr. and Mrs. Hawker will live to enjoy many more years of happy married life with an ever increasing number of good and estimable grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Hawker received this morning a bunch of fifty red and white roses accompanied by a card bearing the inscription "Hearty congratulations and best wishes from a few friends, members of St. George's Society."

E. A. SMITH CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF ST. ANDREW'S CURLERS

Thirty-Two New Members Enrolled at Annual Meeting—Another Sheet of Ice—The Twelve Foot Circle

The annual meeting of St. Andrew's Curling Club was held last night. Reports of the officers for the last year showed that there had been a very successful season. The president, C. G. Robertson, presided, and there was a large attendance of members present. Considerable routine business was transacted and the election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President—E. A. Smith.
Vice-president—E. L. Rising.
Secretary—O. H. Ferguson.
Managing Committee—John White, R. G. Haley, J. H. Tillison, S. P. McCarver, Chaplain—Rev. Gordon Disher.

It was announced that an extra sheet of ice would be available this season, making the sheet in and out of the house of a fourteen foot circle as formerly, a twelve foot circle would be used. The club members are looking forward to a very busy and a very successful season this year. Thirty-two new members were enrolled last night.

A new society badge, designed by the new president, Mr. Smith, was adopted by the members. It is a much neater pin than the one formerly used, and is of a very pretty design. It is of enamel with a white cross on a blue field, overlying a maple leaf. The whole is surrounded by a red band bearing the words, St. Andrew's Curling Club, and the date of the founding of the club.

A STORY THAT IS FALSE

A statement is going about to the effect that the children in Alice in Wonderland were kept out till two o'clock in the morning at rehearsal. This is a gratuitous falsehood which any man or woman knowing the members of the ladies' committee in charge should be ashamed to repeat even as a rumor. The editor of the Times attended the rehearsal, and three of his own children were among the little ones who took part. The young people were out later than usual but not later than some children are found on the public streets, unaccompanied by their parents or those who now set themselves up as critics of the ladies of the Playgrounds Association.

STARTING WELL.

The winter season with the I. C. R. has not yet started in reality, but there is now a stream of work being experienced because of the fact that there are now four steamers in port with inward or forward cargo, as well as three sailing vessels waiting to unload. Two of the latter are loaded with brick and one with lumber, the former to be shipped over the I. C. R. to Collibrook for the work on the new automobile factory. The yard crews are all very busy.
