Hunting Yarns Are Plentiful

Lots of Big Game and St. John Sportsmen Are Getting Their Share Since Season Opened

Already the stories of ventures in the woods searching for big game are floating about the city. Many hunters are even now in the woods "armed to the teeth" looking for the lordly moose and some of those who have returned are starting the annual fall crop of hunting "yarns" some of which are true but to others—well their friends often have a doubt.

Use "The Want Ad Way"

Some weeks ago the summer residents at Seaside Park and vicinity formed an association for the purpose of mutual amusement. The leading spirits in the movement were Edmund Owens, Robert Cochrane, and Wm. Quilly. A bean boat tournament was arranged and each evening for a week a few hours were spent in the indulgence of the sport of throwing the bags. The tournament was brought to a close last evening and John Campbell of Fairville was awarded the prize, a beautiful cut glass dish. The presentation was made by R. J. Walsh, who took occasion to speak in congratulatory terms of the efforts of the association to provide entertainment for the members, both the fair sex who had attended in large numbers, while the male members of the colony took an active hand in the sport. In awarding the prize he paid a tribute to B. Knowles, whose work on the board until the last contest was most creditable. It was the opinion of all that another season would see the organization of an association with similar objects on an enlarged scale, and probably with more attention given to athletics.

Does the Shoe Pinch?

Used to say—if the shoe pinches, wear it.

Now wise people say—read the advertising in live newspapers like The Telegram and Times, and see where you can get a better shoe.

There's individuality about shoes. What's comfort to one man is torture to another.

Perhaps the shoes you have been seeking are described in today's advertising in this newspaper?

If not today—they will be tomorrow. No sense in making your feet unhappy when some merchant in this town has just the pair of shoes you are looking for.

Read up on shoe lore—and patronize the merchant who appeals to your needs.
