

ARE YOU READY

If you read the papers you must have noticed that most of the cities to the south of us have already had big snow storms. It's hard to believe, enjoying as we now are bright, clear sunshine, that soon we, too, may be snow bound. What a pleasant thing it is if, on awakening in the morning and finding the streets covered with snow, to have handy a pair of warm, comfortable

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

In response to my request to my readers to tell me about some of the unusual occupations at which they, or any other woman whom they know, are earning their bread and butter, or even a little jam to go with bread and butter already furnished, one girl has written me such a very interesting and meaty letter that I am going to devote the whole column today to quoting it.

She writes as follows: "While my side line is not absolutely unique it differs from stereotype employment in many ways."

"Three years ago, when I was living in Los Angeles, my father gave me two large Belgian rabbits. And, because I am fond of animals, I spent much time with them and gradually added to my stock, later investing in the new and prettier breed, New Zealand Red, until at present I keep about three dozen does at work constantly."

"Of course, it is much easier to write the bare facts of the matter than it is to describe the hours I have spent and the finger nails I have completely ruined building pens. Or the tears I shed when one after another of my promising young rabbit families simply lay down and died. But after a few months' experience, I know the why and wherefore of a rabbit's demise, and it doesn't happen again if I can prevent."

"The work means perhaps two hours a day of work, and many hours of interest and 'fussing,' but I know to a dollar how much I will have at the end of a month over and above expenses, and it is no inconsiderable amount for a woman to earn at home."

"Besides the financial side of the work, I have found that a healthy interest in 'live things' and the caring for those helpless, eyes, little wrigglers, that in six weeks will develop into lively young rabbits, will do away with most troubles than one would imagine. Who could stay morose or sour when they had to scramble wildly over fifty or a hundred small 'frys' in the run, and manage to feed and water them without breaking any little furrows in the process."

"Then, too, every single rabbit has a personality of its own. I can turn twenty does in together and distinguish everyone and return her to her proper pen, while to the stranger there would be no difference among them."

"There is a steady demand for market stock that, so far, I have never been able to fill, for I cannot devote my time to the work as I wish I might. But for a woman who could and would work six to eight hours per day at it, there is not only money, but big money, waiting."

"With my three dozen does I clear from one to two dollars per day. What could anyone do with fifty?"

"Will the young woman who took the time and trouble to contribute this interesting document, please consider very much thanked, both by any of my readers who may get a hint from it and by myself."
