

We also give an extract from the letter sent by this aunt to the Home:—

"I wish I could adequately express the gratitude I feel to you, and all the ladies with whom you are associated, in this good work, for all the kind care you have bestowed upon these little ones, and the trouble you have taken to secure for them a good permanent home. Most thankful too, I am, to our Heavenly Father that he has crowned your efforts with so great success. I thank you so much for sending one of Mrs. T.'s letters. I like the tone of it, and cannot doubt that in a short time she and her husband will love dear little Daisy and Frank too well not to take all possible care of them."

Subsequent letters from the children show how fully this hope has been realized.

The Lady Managers rejoice to know that the Sunday School has been carried on so successfully during the year by the teachers; and also that the Rev. Mr. Boddy and Rev. Mr. Baldwin have continued to instruct their classes through the week. The good seed sown will yet bring forth a golden harvest, and the time is fast approaching when sower and reaper shall rejoice together.

A change has been made in the Day School, it now being under the management of the Board of School Trustees. Although sincerely sorry to lose the former teacher, Mrs. Price, who was unavoidably disqualified by the new arrangement, the Managers have every reason to feel gratified with the success of the new plan, and beg to thank the School Board for their generous establishment and treatment of the school, and also the Inspector, James Hughes, Esq., for his kind and courteous attention to the wishes of the Lady Managers.

The Managers beg to thank Dr. Ross for his invaluable services. They also desire publicly to express their approbation of the Matron, Mrs. Pearson, whom they are convinced has the work at heart, and whose toil is unremitting in the interests of the institution.

Annexed will be found the Treasurer's Report. The special thanks of the Board are due for the following unsolicited amounts:—Samuel Platt, Esq., $100, per Mrs. Blain; J. P. Clark, Paisley, Scotland, $30; R. A. Smith, Esq., Montreal, $20; G. E. Sears, Esq., New York, $15; E. Sears, Esq., St. John, $5; Rev. Mr. Douse, $5; Mrs. D. Blain, $25;
