

22

Six Millionaires and Mayor. mitz, Indicted in San Francisco.

ncisco, May 27.—Abraham indicted ex-boss of San Franaared as his own lawyer toe of the many criminal prorought against him. Seated ne of the crimson-colored ne Jewish synagague that is vlor's courtroom, he looked nd fororln. His face indicatse nights and long days of read of the ordeals he set for hen, two weeks ago, in Judge hare and shabby courtroom, his plea to guilty, turned dence.

pew back of Ruef sat his for Biggy, and a deputy. Dibas the aisle, in another pew, Schmitz, Reuf's fellow den many charges brought, and others to follow, at liberty ,000 bonds. M. Delmas, the San Fran-

M. Delmas, the San Franver, who defended Harry K. the murder of Stanford us been retained to defend Louis Glass and Agent V. Halsey, of the Pacific lephone and Telegraph Comneir trial has been set for . At that time more than the witnesses, including the supervisors and Ruef, will be to testify for the state. It cash bail to be offered by the nineteen indicted was a stifled cheque on the London, American bank, tendered to-Frank G. Drum, indicted, on sounts charging the bribery of rs in behalf of the San Fran-and Electric Company, at Glass and Agent Halsey, of one company, and President alhoun, Vice President Thornally and Attorneys Ford and f the United Railroads, inbribing supervisors, were I Saturday morning, June 1st afternoon Ruef and Schmitz ligned on Indictments for ibes from the United Raild the same disposition was heir cases.

the sum of $910,000 was given six millionaires and Mayor Frank Drum gave $70,000 and Schmitz Eugene De-John Martin $140,000 each, in ch on indictments charging h the bribery of supervisors gas rate from 1906-7 at $5 add of 75 cents. Joseph Green L Brobeck and George H. of the Umbsen Real Estate gave bonds in the sum of ch on indictments charging offering to bribe supervisors a trolley franchise to the Transit Company.

y man of them all who has effort to offer bail of any braham Ruef, against whom I up bail requirements to the 125,000.

ys Campbell and Fairall ento-day get a reduction in the ball required of Mayor which they denounced as "exnd violative of the constituidge Coffey has the matter visement.

ated on authority that the ry has under consideration ning of many more counts nen already indicted.

LEGED CONFESSION.

reld in Connection With Murder rl Reported to Have Made Statement.

rk, May 27.-Henry Becker, un-In connection with the slaying a Staffeldt in Elmhurst last y, is alleged to have made antession to detectives, describing iteness how the crime was com-His first statement, in which he wa companion attack the girl, equently retracted. Yesterday tken to the scene of the crime dentified by Miss Emily Simonof the men who washed at the her yard on the day of the mur-was asked about the second has been talked about in confith the case, and for the first litted that he never saw this re he was about to go into the yard, and that after the two heir hands together at the pump ger disappeared and he had not after that. Becker was then ck to the jail, and during the Elmhurst to Long Island City etectives Galvin and Ticho, it is he most important and shocking he story.

the woold feel better if he told truth. He described how he had ing in the field and saw the girl lot in search of dandelions. up to her," he is quoted as lot in search of dandelions. t up to her," he is quoted as id, "and tried to get up a flirtashe told me to go away. 'If leave me,' she said, 'I will call an.' I can't remember just what , but I know I took hold of her. it her in the back of the head one. After that I struck her once with the knife." did you do that for?" asked Gal-

I know?" muttered Becker, no I know? multiple Becker, rashing his hands at the pump, he went toward Corona as fast le, and there, near a railroad took off his outside shirt, which led, tore it up and threw it into

IRISH AFFAIRS.

, May 27.-In anticipation of Campbell-Bannerman's promouncement on the subject of a Council bill and other govmeasures, a large crowd asin the House of Commons tote Premier, however, was not divulge the government's pro-When the questions relating rish bill were taken up, the asked that they be postponed eek, when he would answer do outline the course proposed overnment in connection with siness of the session. lief secretary for Ireland, Mr. boccupied his usual seat in the