So far as can be ascertained the collections last Sunday in aid of the Bible Society were most gratifying. In St. Andrew's church 150 envelopes were taken out. Of this number only 21 have been received, and they contained about $50. In most of the other churches the envelopes have not yet been returned, but it is expected that the contribution will be equally large. American Lumber Co., Blocking afterpoon Mr. Tweedie in answer to questions from Mr. Hazen said that it had not yet been decided when to hold the election to fill the St. John vacancy; that no connection existed between the government and the deaf and dumb school of Lancaster; that the government had no present intention of holding an investigation into the managemet of the asylum; that the government had guaranteed first mortgage debentures of the Intercolonial Railway Company of New Brunswick, on the line from Campbellton to the River St. John to the number of two hundred, amounting to $100,000. The interest was well guaranteed. The cost of the portion already constructed was $818,966.20.

In answer to Mr. Hazen, Mr. Pugsley stated that the payments on account of the consolidation of the statutes have been as follows: In 1903, $10,042.98; in 1902, $5.666.25; in 1903, $10,042.98; in
