WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Eastern States and northern New York—Fair tonight and Saturday. Warmer Saturday in the interior, light variable winds, becoming southeast.

LOCAL NEWS.

"The Willows," at Reed's Point, will be open on Sunday and closed on Monday for the season.

Western Union linemen have reached St. Stephen with a new copper wire they are stretching tomorrow afternoon. Each team has now a victory to its credit and the game will be warily contested. The St. Joseph's line-up will be unchanged. Elverson will play first base for the Marathons, Stube replacing him in right field. Stubbs, who is the regular first baseman for the Marathons, is in New York.

Considerable speculation has been indulged in as to the probable appointee to the office of Stipendiary Magistrate for the county and town. It is understood that the offices were offered in the first instance to Mr. George Dryden, but he has declined to accept owing to business reasons. It is understood that Mr. Jos. Hornbrook will likely preside over the court in future and his appointment will be made at the next meeting of the Government. Considerable business awaits the new incumbent.—Sussex Recorder.

On the invitation of John H. Tonge a number of his friends enjoyed a pleasant outing yesterday afternoon at View End Gardens. Games were indulged in and beautiful prizes were given. Miss Lucy Tonge sang "Lily" an enthusiastic encore, when she gave absence. Mr. Tonge also sang several songs. Miss Tonge will have soon to fill an engagement with the W. H. Savage Co. with which she is under contract for a term of years. Speeches were made during the gathering by Joseph Nobles, Samuel Drury, E. J. Logan, John Johnson and Ald. McGowan. Joseph Craig gave several recitations.

Another case of the low down cut part of human nature coming to the surface, is reported as occurring here last week. Several children took a dog out the dog road somewhere and tying it to a tree, proceeded to torture it in a most inhuman manner, shooting, stabbing and hacking it to death. The perpetrators were quite small children, and of course are not one half as much to blame as the parents, who bring them up in such a careless manner that such savage traits come so often to the front. We are far from championing the raising of the cur dogs that are so plentiful, and claim that with the exception of the sheep dogs, it would be better for the country if every dog in it was made away with, as the raising of one sheep or lamb, is of more benefit to the country than all the dogs throughout the whole Dominion, but the above methods are not the way to effect the cure.—Victoria County News.

Mr. Kenneth O. Scribner, son of Robert Scribner, Hampton Village, for the past three or four years a member of the staff of T. McAvity & Son, St. John, has severed his connection with this firm and intends leaving for Missoula, Montana, on the 14th inst, where he has accepted a good position with a hardware firm. On Saturday night last Mr. Scribner was presented with a gold mounted watch fob by the members of the staff, attached to which was a gold locket with his initials engraved on one side, while on the other was the inscription, "To Kenneth O. Skinner from the boys of T. McAvity & Son, St. John, N. B., 1907." Mr. Scribner will be greatly missed by the young people of the village, more especially by the baseball team of which organization he has been a valued member for many years. All Mr. Scribner's friends join in wishing him the greatest success in the distant field in which he has thought best to make his future home.—Sussex Recorder.

TWO MEN DROVE OFF WITH ALD. MCGOWAN'S HORSE

Last night about 9.30 o'clock Alderman McGowan drove into an alley off Sydney street where he left his horse and double seated carriage while he attended to some business in the office of the master painters' union. When he left the office a short time later he was surprised to find his rig gone. The horse had been backed out of the alley and had been spirited away. On making inquiries the alderman learned that two men were seen to enter the carriage and drive toward Lower Cove. The alderman reported the matter to the police and a close watch was kept but the rig was not located by them. It was supposed to have been seen on St. James street at midnight. Alderman McGowan left word at Worden's stable with the night stableman to be on the lookout for the rig as he expected that those who took the animal away would turn it loose when through with it and the mare would make for the stable on Princess street. About two o'clock this morning the stableman heard a horse trotting down Princess street and rushed to the door to see if it turned down Charlotte street. It entered the block and he caught it on the next turn. The animal was quite tired. An endeavor will be made to find out who the men were that took the drive and then turned the horse loose.

REV. E. C. JENKINS WRITES A LETTER TO W. C. GAYNOR

Says He Spoke from the Pulpit Without Knowing Who Was Referred to by the Rumors—Fr. Gaynor to Take Further Action.

The following letter received by Rev. W. C. Gaynor from Rev. E. C. Jenkins is self explanatory:—

St. John, N. B., Sept. 12, 1907.

Rev. W. C. Gaynor, Spruce Lake, St. John Co., N. B.

My Dear Sir,—I greatly regret that my address a few Sundays ago from my pulpit in Charlottown was so misinterpreted as to be of any injury to you. My address was dealing with civic morals, and I had heard certain rumors reflecting some person in an ecclesiastical position, but did not know to whom they applied, and had never heard your name in connection with the same, and did not intend to make any reflection upon you, personally. Since my statements have been so interpreted, and the public not knowing the heart of the thought, it would have been more satisfactory to all had I made further inquiries as to the truth of the rumors before mentioning them from my pulpit. However, I am very glad to understand that you have been able to prove some of the reports untrue, and I shall be glad as a brother minister to know that you are entirely clear of all reflections in regard to the rumors which have been circulated, and I can assure you of my warmest sympathy in this regard. In conversation with Father Gaynor today the Star learned that some years ago, Mr. A. H. Hanington, had been under an order of the equity court, guardian for Curran, but was unable to put up with the eccentricities of the old man and had him handed over to Mr. Gaynor, who has since looked after him. Father Gaynor assured the Star that the money belonging to Curran, amounting to some $800 or $750, would be available whenever required. It was in his possession and would be produced when Curran's will was submitted for probate. There will be no trouble whatever about this.

Continuing, Father Gaynor said that was doing all possible to refute the rumors on financial matters which had been circulated about him and hoped within a very short time to prove himself perfectly free from anything of an improper nature. Further than this, he would certainly take action towards the man himself of the other, and more serious charges which have been made. At the present time he did not care to state definitely his plans, but he was sure to get direct information which would enable him to take action against the parties responsible for the original stories. He had no doubt that his entire innocence would be proven.

MINISTER STRUCK DEAD WHILE WAVING A GREETING TO HIS WIFE

A very sad accident occurred at Van Buren during the thunder storm of Friday night. Rev. Mr. Habau, a Congregational student was walking to his house from the St. John Lumber Co's mill when just about to turn in toward the house he raised his hand to wave to his wife who was standing near the window. At that instant he was struck by a bolt of lightning and still dead. His clothing was almost torn off. Mr. Habau was about to return to college and expected to preach his farewell sermon on Sunday. He had been married but a short time. His body was taken to Warren, Maine, for burial. The members of his congregation and the Masonic lodge made up a purse of $150 and presented to the widow before she left Van Buren.

BRITISH MARKET GLUTTED.

Farnworth and Jardine's circular dated Liverpool, September 2nd, says:—"New Brunswick and Nova Scotia spruce and pine deals.—The import to Liverpool and Manchester during the past month has again been too heavy, viz.—About 25,000 stks. (about the same as July) and although the deliveries have also been large, stocks have further increased, and now amount to about 6,000 stks., which is very excessive. Prices have steadily declined, and as the market much requires relief, it is most desirable that shipments should be curtailed as much as possible. Pine deals are in better demand at improved prices. Prices are given as £7 to £7.15 per standard.
