the different Catholic societies, and the form which the farewell will take will probably be decided upon tomorrow evening at a joint meeting to be held in St. Malachi's Hall. The societies have been asked to send delegates to discuss the matter, and the representatives will meet tomorrow evening. The question of a fitting date.

USED HARVEST FRUITS WITH SPLENDID EFFECT

Carmarthen Street Church Beautifully Decorated for Annual Thanksgiving Service Yesterday.

A powerful sermon delivered by Rev. T. J. Deinstadt, excellent singing and beautiful decorations of appropriate character, were the features of the Thanksgiving service in the Carmarthen street Methodist church last evening when such a large number attended as to necessitate the placing of extra seats in the back of the church.
The decorations were composed entirely of the fruits of the harvest.
Grapes, grain and apples played a prominent part in the scheme, all the vegetables also being represented.

On the wall at the back of the church was the inscription "God has promised seed time and harvest." This inscription was done entirely in apples the effect being beautiful.
Other sections of the auditorium were also trimmed in an appropriate manner, the effect leaving nothing to be desired.

The choir consisted of seventy voces and was divided into two sections one being stationed in the balcony and the other behind the pulpit. This choir was composed of adults and children, the music rendered being of the best, the double choir giving an added effect to the singing.
Rev. T. J. Deinstadt preached the sermon from the text "Rest in the Lord oh my soul," Psalm 103, and the second verse.

St. George's Church, West End, was nicely decorated yesterday in honor of the harvest Thanksgiving service which was conducted by Rev.
W. H. Sampson.

The decorations consisted of grain and the other fruits of the harvest and the church presented a beautiful appearance.
Rev. Mr. Sampson preached an eloquent sermon from the 50th Psalm, and the 23rd verse, "Whoso offereth grain glorifieth Me; and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God."

FIVE HUNDRED IN NEXT WEEK'S SHOW

"Alice in Wonderland" is going to be the best thing of its kind the people of St. John have ever enjoyed.
There have been numerous amateur productions of this play, but none like this one, in which nearly five hundred children take part. Hundreds of families have been invited on the Opera House stage next week, indicating widespread co-operation in the forwarding of the public play.
The story of Alice and her fanciful journey into the land of fairies, elves and Mother Goose, will make the show of special delight to the children.
The bright musical numbers, magnificent drills, marches and ensembles—not to mention costumes, scenic and lighting effects—will be sure to please the grown ups. Tickets are selling rapidly, and on Wednesday, 30th, at 10 a. m. the plan of reserved seats will be put on view for the whole week's selling. It is planned to sell the four boxes each night at $5.00 per box, procurable at the Opera House ticket.

the customs department, arrived in the city yesterday from Montreal en route to Annapolis.

feature at this morning's session will 12 news items in photographs from all parts of the world. The Singing Carols will make their bow at the afternoon session, and they are sure to create a most favorable impression.

a Biograph with Mary Pickford in the leading role; Edison's picture version of "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and a romantic comedy called "The Wild Man."

room at their own expense or by their own labor. On Tuesday First Aid work will be started among the Boy Scouts of St. James' Church. Dr.
Dunlop will be the lecturer.

HARVEST FESTIVAL IN ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Services of Much Interest Yesterday — Church Decorated for the Occasion with Fruits and Grain.

Harvest festival services were held in St. James' church yesterday, and the church was trimmed with flowers, fruits and vegetables in honor of the occasion. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Sampson, pastor of St.
George's church occupied the pulpit, and at the evening service Rev. H.
A. Cady preached an interesting sermon, taking as his text: "Thou drownest the year with Thy goodness."

He pointed out that the nation and city could be thankful that it was at peace, and had enjoyed a year of progress materially. He spoke of the extension of missionary work, and referred to the recent discovery of 2,000 Esquimaux in the north of Canada who had never come in contact with civilization, and the decision of Bishop Stringer to send a number of Christian Esquimaux among them to try and convert them.

ELOQUENT ADDRESS ON LIFE OF POPE LEO

St. Peter's Y.M.A. Winter Lecture Course Inaugurated Yesterday Afternoon with Dr. O'Reilly as Speaker.

The winter course of lectures to be held by the St. Peter's Y. M. A. was auspiciously inaugurated yesterday afternoon in the society's rooms, Douglas Avenue, with Rev. Dr.
O'Reilly as the lecturer. The attendance was large, members of St.
Michael's Society and Branch 482 C.
M. B. A. being present.

The lecture was followed with attention and appreciation. Rev. Dr.
O'Reilly gave a pleasing word picture of the life and works of the illustrious predecessor of Pius X. He gave his hearers an insight into the early career and education of Leo XIII., and an interesting sketch of the achievements during that pontificate.
After pointing out the value and necessity of Christian training, the speaker referred to the early education of Leo, who was, in his tenor years placed under the direction of the Jesuits by his parents, Count and Countess Pecci. During his school days the youth showed marked ability and gave promise of a brilliant future. The literary bent of his mind was evidenced even in his early years as a student and his aptitude for Latin and Italian composition was remarkably keen.

Following his appointment as archbishop and later to the Papal See Leo showed rare diplomacy in the various offices which he filled. As Archbishop of Perugia, as Ambassador to the Belgian court his talent for diplomacy made a deep impression.
Rev. Dr. O'Reilly passed in review the different matters in church legislation which marked the reign of Leo XIII., and gave an interesting account of the celebration of the observance of the golden jubilee of that pontiff which took place in 1887, and on which occasion over 80,000 people from all parts of the world assembled in St. Peter's to do homage to the reigning sovereign.

Eczema Cured
Three Years Ago

Best City Doctors Failed, But Cure Was Effected by Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. A. T. Smith.

You apply Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema and feel the benefit as if by magic. It may take some days to get the sores cleaned out and the healing process fully established, but from day to day you can see the old troubles gradually disappearing and know that you are getting rid of it.
Mrs. A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles St., Montreal, Que., writes:—"I had eczema on my leg for four years, and tried many remedies and doctors in Montreal and Boston, without any benefit. I used three boxes of Dr.
Chase's Ointment and was cured completely. This was three years ago.
Since then I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for irritations and eruptions of the skin, and easily got rid of them with two or three applications. Dr.
Chase's Ointment is a wonderful preparation."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Settle the Range Question NOW —Settle It Definitely

Reason out the whole proposition.
State in black and white what you require in a range—what you must have.

1st. The range you are going to buy must be a perfect cooking apparatus.
That demands scientifically proportioned Oven and Fire-box—also heating flues that do not deviate one iota from correct principles in range building.

2nd. The range you are going to buy must be handsome in appearance, yet easily kept clean.
This demands a rich, not lavish, nickel adornment with bold, strong carving, none of that delicate, impossible-to-keep-clean tracery.

3rd. The range you are going to buy must be economical on fuel and a time-saver.

So, you must be sure that the firebox radiates the maximum of heat quickly—you must know that every cubic inch of warm air is utilized—you must see that the Oven attends strictly to business with the least possible attention on your part.

4th. The range you are going to buy must be a range of many conveniences.

That demands years of experience—unusual care—inventive genius and liberal expenditure on the part of the manufacturer before you can get the range of many conveniences.

Now, read the column of reasons to the right of this advertisement—don't hurry—read carefully, then, you will be convinced that the Pandora is the range you want to buy because the "Pandora" is the one perfect range—the range that gives

5th. The range you are going to buy must be a permanent investment.
Therefore, you must know that the material of each part is specially manufactured to serve its special purpose—that every part is tested, then, assembled by stove experts who joy in their work.

"Pandora" Range

6th. The range you are going to buy must be guaranteed by manufacturers with a reputation to sustain.

Investigate, and you'll find that the manufacturers with the best reputation are precisely those who must turn out the best ranges.

utter satisfaction in the kitchen, and—The "PANDORA" SAVES MONEY. Your husband will agree with you. But—you just take him to the nearest McClary agent and he'll buy the range you want—The "Pandora" Range.
