

from the Maine Central Yearly Meeting. In the evening, by Rev. F. Babcock. The good sermons, so faithfully delivered, accompanied by the Spirit's power which filled the place, could not have failed to move and greatly benefit the multitude that gathered to hear the word.

Rev. E. N. Munroe preached at Centre Argyle in the morning, and Rev. J. Perry, at Tusket, in the evening.

This Conference has been remarkable for the blessing of the Spirit's presence during all its sessions. This is the true evidence of desired success.

J. I. PORTER, Clerk.
