POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 28 1902.

OBITUARY,

per Corner, Sussex, where the body will be interred. Mrs. Sarah E. Clark, Formerly of St John.

Mrs. Sarah E. Clark, wife of William J. Clarke, died at her home Sunday morn-ing, after a lingering illness of several months of consumption. She was a native Funerals. Fredericton, N. B., June 24-(Special) The funeral of John McGee took place months of consumption. She was a native of St. John (N. B.), coming to this city this afternoon. Interment was made at e in the Church of the Ascension, at Apohaqui, at 10 a. m. The funeral will then proceed to the cemetery at the Up-

AN ACTRESS KILLED.

Alice Forest Found Unconscious Under the Stage of Albany Theatre.

Hermanus Bleecker Hall, died yes-moved to the Albany Hospital, where it was found she was suffering from a fractured skull.

company.

TRAMPS WORK

from Worms through Loss Fits, Sleeplessness and Pars Lean's Veglable Worm and nal and genupe. Away S and Effectual. Many ears ways satisfactor. Ge the Lean's Vegetable Worm Syn

New London, Conn., June 26-President

Carters

Vood

CARTER'S FOR HEADACHE.

FOR DIZZINESS. FOR BILIOUSNESS. FOR TORFID LIVER. FOR CONSTIPATION, FOR SALLOW PRIME

Price GENUINE MUST HAVE SUCHATURE.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

FOR THE COMPLEXION

Aust i

K

See Fac-Single

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

ways satisfactor Lean's Vegetable with her husband 18 years ago, where they have since resided. Her death wil the Hermitage. Fredericton, June 24.—(Special)—The funer-al of the late David K. Tapley took place today at Marysville, and was largely attend-ed. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bellis, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ridout. The pall-bearers were J. R. McConnelt, J. W. Read, Alex. Forbes, D. P. Reid, George W. Foster, and J. C. MacPherson. the Hermitage.

with her husband 18 years ago, where they have since resided. Her death will be sincerely felt. The deepest sympathy goes out to the stricken husband, and the other dear ones she leaves behind in their sad bereavement. The deceased leaves, besides a husband, two sisters, Mrs. W. L. Phillips and Mrs. E. Stevens, of this city, and two brothers, George and Edward Kitchen, of St. John (N. B.) The funeral took place at her late resi-dence, 355 Chatham street, Wednesday af-ternoon at 2 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends, many being present from Boston, Cam-bridge, Somerville, Lowell and St. John (N. B.), who came to pay their last lov-ing tribute to their life long friend. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph Dawson, pastor of St. Luke's M. E. church, who spoke very touchingly of the life and character of the deceased. The Saunderson quartette sang Gathering Home, Shall We Gather at the River, and Good Night. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, among them being a large pillow of roses and pinks, inscribed "Wife," a magnificent wreath, from the sisters of the deceased, and many beauti-ful casket bouquets. The burial was in pine Grove cemetery.-Lynn (Mass.) Daily Item. Albany, N. Y., June 26 .- Miss Alice Forest, an actress with the Herbert stock company, which is playing an engagement terday as the result of injuries she sus taned in the theatre last night. Miss Forest was playing a minor part Before the ending of the first act one of the stage hands discovered her lying un-conscious beneath the stage. He spur-moned other members of the company, who at first thought the actress had faint ed, and attempted to revive her. A physician was then called in, and discovered that the young woman had sustained a concussion of the brain. She was re-

Miss Blanche Lockhart.

The many friends of Capt. W. Lockhar of the D. A. R. steamer Prince Edward, will learn with deep regret that on Mon-day he received a telegram from his home at Avonport (N. S.) that his youngest sister, Miss Blanche Lockhart, had died. sister, Miss Blanche Lockhart, had died The young lady had been a student at Wolfeville and had been ill only two months. She was 19 years of age and had a host of friends. She was the daughter of James Lockhart, of Avon-port, and leaves besides her parents, three sisters and five brothers.

espise ? Edward C. Salmon. Edward C. Salmon. son of W. G. Salmon, died suddenly Tuesday morn-ing, at Johnston's Hotel, Loch Lomond, ing, at Johnston's Hoter, hoter, hoter Johnston, where he had been for the benefit of his health. Deceased was 27 years old and an estimable and popular young man. Recently he was the champion bicycle rider of the province, and was a noted speed skater. He spent some time in the Klondike but since his return has not i Wichita, Kan., June 26-Tramps are been in robust health. By all his ac-being pressed into service as harvesters in

FREE BOOK.

This book is the result of eighteen years of experience and of nearly 38,000 successful-ly treated cases. Dr. Sproule's repeated successes in cases where all other doctors had failed have proved that his method of treatment is the only one suitable for longstanding and stubborn Catarrh.

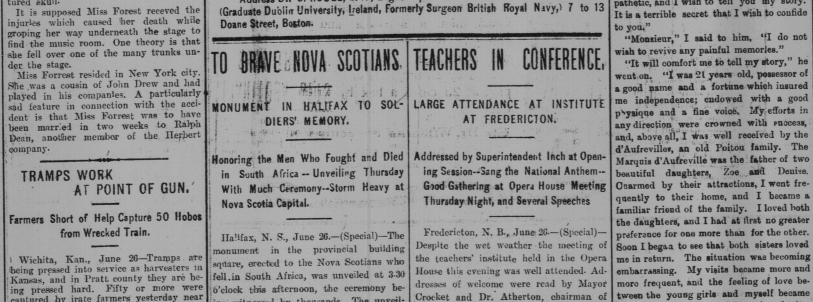

In his book this famous Specialist and great hearted philanthropist gives you the benefit of all his years of toil and research. He realizes how much dreadful suffering of mind as well as body are caused by thes nts. In his book ne does not mystify you with a lot of high-sounding names and technical terms. He does not perplex you with a lot of diseases you are never likely to have, His book will tell you of nothing but Catarrh." But it will tell you

great result He ex ed by fan yours are

ou. It is fully illustrated at great expense, so ing has been spared to make this book a real discouraged h suffer have ma day, but often planning how they so much you this book gement and prove the means of leading

Address DR SPROULE, B. A, English Specialist in Catarrh and Chronic Diseases (Graduate Dublin University, Ireland, Formerly Surgeon British Royal Navy,) 7 to 13

AN ODD GUEST.

I live in a charming little villa at Auteui! One warm day in June I was playing on my violin, stuaying Mendelssohn, when sud-denly some one knocked at my door, and a man who was entirely unknown to me entered my apartment.

"I beg your pardon, monsieur," he said to ne, in a sad voice, for coming in upon you without having myself announced. I am your neighbor, and it is that fact which takes me so bold. I adore music. Your violin has a marvelous tone and you play with remarkable talent." "I possess an excellent violin," I an swered him. "It is an old Italian one-an Amati."

The unknown took the instrument in his hands and examined it on all sides." "It is one of the best of them," said he

"it is worth 15,000 francs. It is not my instrument," he added. "I play the violinolla

I took the violin f om him and began the adagio again, patting all my soul into it. "That was beautiful; and how well you rendered the master's thought! Once again, monsisur, pardon me for the assurance with which I opened your door. I am a little odd; I have suffered much."

The unknown buried his face in his hands. "I lost my wife whom I adored, under the most terrible circumstances. 1 was mad for a long time afterward." "I have been cured," he continued, "and I am trying to forget it all. You seem sympathetic, and I wish to tell you my story. It is a terrible secret that I wish to confide

"Monsieur," I said to him, "I do not wish to revive any painful memorles." "It will comfort me to tell my story," he vent on. "I was 21 years old, possessor o a good name and a fortune which insured me independence; endowed with a good ysique and a fine voice. My efforts in any direction were crowned with success, and, above all, I was well received by the and, above all, I was well received by the d'Aufrevilles, an old Poitou family. The Marquis d'Aufreville was the father of two beautiful daughters. Zoe and Deniee. Cuarmed by their attractions, I went fre-cuantly to their home, and I became a quently to their home, and I became a familiar friend of the family. I loved both the daughters, and I had at first no greater preference for one more than for the other. Soon I began to see that both sisters loved

"I did not ask to know your secret,"] aswered hurriedly. "You know it, therefore there is one too nany of us in the world!" he cried mesacingly. He advanced toward me. "I am going to throw you, too, upon the track!" he yelled. He fumbled with the curtains at the window which overlooked the street. At the same moment there was a ring at my door. I ran quickly to open it. I saw a well-dressed man appear, decorated with the ribbon of the Legion o Honor, followed by two herculean men. "Dr. Maxfestown," he said, introducing imself in a foreign accent, "I am the director of a sanitarium. One of my patients nas escaped." "He's here. You've arrived just in time. God be thanked."

"It is the Comte de Martini, an unfortunate who has lost his mind in consequence of the death of his wife, whom he adored, and who he imagines was poisoned. We will relieve you of his presence. These are two keepers from the asylum," he said. We entered the drawing room. "Doctor," cried the madman, "this man small quantities. Apply to wishes to denounce me. I must have his "Your presence irritates him," said the doctor to me. "Will you be so good as to hide yourself until we take him away ?"

"I asked nothing better." I opened the door of a closet, "I can hide myself in this," I said. "Many thanks, monsieur. The family c the comte will never forget your kindness. The doctor then pushed me into the close of which he fastened the bolt.

doctor, but the noise of displaced furniture told me that the lunatic had escaped from to make some money. his keepers into my bedroom. Presently the noise ceased; the madman had been captured; but in his preoccupation the doctor had forgotten to release me. I was shut up in my prison until evening. Then the oincierge came and f eed me. "And what became of the lunatic?"

"What lunstic, monsieur?" As he spoke chest, and hold liniment m

RAILWAY

TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.

TRAINS ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN.

7-Express from Sussex 3-Express from Montreal and Que-retiring is Don't be

Logging Contractors LEWIS MILLER & CO., To Lumbermen

WANTED

and others

The Cushing Sulphite Fibre Co Ltd., of St. John, N. B., are ope to contract with Lumbermen others for a supply of Spruce Pulp Wood for deliver next spring in large

MR.JAMES BEVERIDGE St. John, N. B., or to tl

Company at Fairville, N. B.

Wanted : Good hustlin Agents in every unrepresente district to sell The Dail Telegraph. Here is "Be calm, Monsieur le Comte," said the chance for wide awake boy

Write for particulars to Telegraph Pab. Co., St. John, N. B.

Sugar Cured, Fine Flavor. Mess Pork, Plate Beef, Butter Tubs, Basket One car Granulated Sugar lan

ing; price low. JAMES COLLINS. 208 and 210 Union Street

Sproule Will Send You This Book Free.

TARRH

duaintances he was well thought off, and his early demise will cause heartfelt re-gret. Besides his parents, he leaves one brother, Charles, and two sisters. Miss Ethel R. Salmon and Mrs. W. B. Ten-the heart of the heart was ant. Tuesday afternoon the body was conveyed to the city by Undertaker Chamberlain and taken to the residence of the family, Golding street.

Dein Sage.

Campbellton, N. B., June 24--(Special) --Dean Sage, of Albany, president of Camp Harmony Angling Club at the Upssalquitch river, died suddenly yester-day afternoon. A special car was sent through from Metapedia with the body. He was in his 56th year]

Mrs. D. Boyce Scott, Moncton.

Moncton, N. B., June 24-(Special)-Mrs. Scott, wife of D. Boyce Scott, I. C. R. electrician, died this morning. She was 35 years old, a daughter of Thomas Willett, of New Richmond (Que.) and sister of Mrs. A. Leaman and Mrs. S. top, of this city.

John Harding, Maugerville.

Fredericton, June 24 --(Special)-The death occurred at Maugerville this morning of Clarence Harding, aged 22, son of John Harding, to and descent and

- DESTRICT David Lawson, at Moncton.

David Lawson, at Moncton. Chatham, N. B., June 25-(Special)-The sad news was received here today of the death of David Lawson yesterday in Moncton. He was a native of Dundee, Scotland, was 76 years old and for many years was one of Chatham's most highly respected citizens. He leaves two sons-James, of Boston, and David, of this place, and one daughter, Mrs. William Smallwood, of Moncton, with whom he had been living for the last few months. The body is expected here tomorrow al-ternoon and the funeral will take place from the station. The interment will be in the Rivenside cemetery. New London, Conn., June 20-r residue Roosevelt left tonight for Washington. While the presidential train waited at the depot the cheering of the crowd brought the president to the car door. He cordially returned the salutations and finally said: "I am delighted to see you. The day has been a spleradid one, but I

Richard Beattie.

The day has been a splendid one, but I regret that the victory could not have been on my side."

Richard BeattieAmherst, June 24—The funeral of Rich ard Beattie took place at the Highland Cemetery, Amherst, from his late resident temetery, Amherst, from his late resident
the day has been a spleadid of
the day has been a spleadid of tegret that the victory could be
tegret that the victory could be
tegret that the victory could be term and Nightingale, former pastor of the Methodist church, Truemanville, conducted the services. Revs. Messrs. Scott proves and Nightingale, former pastor of the day has been a spleadid of tegret that the victory could be term and nightly respected farmers of the three weeks after that of his wife, make the circumstances more than usually sad.
He leaves three some—R. Wilson and Wilt iam at Truemanville, and Nevin, in the Klondike, and one daughter, Mrs. Richard Cove, mother of Mrs. A. M. Bonnyman, members of a family of eight children of the late William Beattie.Former StateAmherst, is a sister, the only surviving members of a family of eight children of the late William Beattie.Former State temper State

Mrs. Laura Gunter.

Mrs. Laura Gunter. The death occurred at Boston, June 19, of Laura E., widew of the late Charles I. Gunter, formerly of Fredericton. De-ceased, who was 47 years of age, had been a sufferer from consumption. She leaves two daughters and one son, Arnold, of Boston, and two brothers, John Brown, of Boston, and George Brown, of Troy (N.Y.) The funeral took place at Bos-ton Saturday. Little Liver Pills.

Margaret Clark. Fredericton, June 25-The death occu red at Covered Bridge, of Margaret, daughter of William Clark. Besides her parents she leaves one brother and five sisters. The funeral will take place to-

Mrs. Sarah Chambers, Apohaqui. Sussex, N. B., June 25-Mrs. Sarah Chambers died last night at Apohaqui, aged 87 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow, the 26th inst. Rev. Scovil Nealis will conduct the funeral ser-

and the state of the second of the second

Kansas, and in Fratt county they are be-ing pressed hard. Fifty or more were captured by irate farmers yesterday near Pratt, and all day long they ran binders and carried bundles under the eyes of ing witnessed by thousands. The unveiling was to have been performed by Lieut Governor Jones but he was taken suddenly women, armed with guns. David W. Blaine, an importer of harvest ill and General Sir Charles Parsons acted David W. Blaine, an importer of narvest hands, had arranged for importing men into Pratt county for his and his neigh-bors' use. The men started for Pratt, but were captured by farmers along the line. Late last night, a freight train, westward bound, was wrecked near Pratt. On it were 50 tramps going to Colorado. The farmers tried to hire them at $2 per day, but faw were willing to work, so, with in his place. Detachments of the imperial troops, mi itia and men from H. M. S. Crescent and Indefatigable were present. General Sir Charles Parsons and staff

Admiral Sir Frederick Bedford and staff, Lady Bedford, the captains of the warbut few were willing to work, so, with shotgun persuasion, they were distributed among the farmers whose fields most need ships, commanders of the imperial troops and militia and other officials and repre sentative citizens were present with the nonument committee and Sculptor Me among the farmers whose hends most herdraded ed cutting, and women were put on guard over them. They will be forced to work about ten days. The shortage of farm hands in Pratt county is about 2,000, and in the state about 10,000 or more. Carthy. The monument, without doubt, is on the handsomest in the dominion. Previous to unveiking, Geo. S. Camp-bell, chairman of the board of trade, read an address, in which he said: "I believe MANY CHILDREN SUFFER that is the first monument erected in the of Appetite British dominions to our African soldiers Give Mo rup, the origination of the second se and it marks an epoch in the history of the province. It will stand to show future ages the important part taken by future ages the important part taken by our people and the soldiers of Canada in the South African campaign. It will fur-ther serve as a reminder of the enthusiears in use, al the genuine Mc astic loyalty and readiness with which the Canadian coal to Bangor. soldiers of Canada responded to the inti-mation that their services would be ac-Bangor, June 26-Maine is import Dominion coal in considerable quantities since the coal strike began in Pennsyl cepted.'

A terrific southeast gale with rain was vania. Six cargoes have recently arrived at Portland, and several at other ports in progress here since about 6 o'clock this evening, accompanied by violent rain squalls, the wind at times blowing with In former years large quantities of Cape Breton coal were imported into Maine, and should the strike continue much longer the trade will undoubtedly be re-vived. The Canadian coal is chiefly used most hurricane force. The steamers Carlisle City, of London, and Bauta, for Jamaica cleared this afternoon but remain in post until the storm abates. A heavy for the manufacture of gas, for which purpose it is said to be highly satisfactory. sea is running in the harbor.

President Roosevelt Regrets Harvard Defeat MANITOBA GETS NICE

School Lands; Also Rentals,

Totaling More Than $200,000.

Ottawa, June 26-(Special)-The dominpartiment has requisitioned for the is ue of a cheque for this amount to be at once sent to the government of Manitoba. E. J. Reynolds, K. C., Brockville, has been appointed junior judge for the county of Leeds and Greaville. His appointment was signed today. For some years Mr. Reynolds, has been town collisiton of

Reynolds has been town solicitor of

Brockville

falling tree.

fir and pine.

STORM FATALITY

the school board, and were responded to Inspectors Carter and Mersereau. The meeting was addressed by Prof. Adams, of Glasgow, and Prof. Robertson, of Ottawa. Prof. Adams spoke on education, particularly bringing out the thought What universities and schools onsisted not of the buildings but of teachers and pupils, and that the highest product of all education is the character of the men and women who are educated. Prof. Robertson discussed school gardens in connection with rural schools and explained how Sir Wm. McDonald planned to the consolidation of rural school and conveying the children to the centra school. He gave an excellent address of an hour's length. The meeting closed at antheni.

The Institute convened in the assembly hall of the normal school at 10 o'clock this morning, Chief Superintendent Inch in the chair. The attendance was very arge, between 300 and 400 teachers being large, between 300 and 400 teachers being enrolled. Dr. Inch conducted devotional exercises and then made reference to the illness of King Edward. The national an-them was heartily sung by all. In an address to the institute he spoke of the dematture to South Africe of the New the departure to South Africa of the New Brunswick teachers and to the progress along educational lines in this province.

The Sloyd system and the school in this city was spoken of and all the teachers advised to make a visit to the exhibit in connection with the institute meeting. The report of the executive committee wa read by Secretary Brittain, showing reread by Secretary Brittain, showing re-ceipts $565.30, expenditure $547.42. On motion of Mr. Oalton, seconded by Mr. Horseman, the enrollment fee was fixed, gentlemen, $1; ladies, 50 cents. Prof. J. Brittain was reappointed sec-retary and Miss Harriet Gregg, of St. John, assistant. Miss Minnie Fowler, of St. John, was closted assistant sectors.

St. John, was elected assistant secretary SUM FROM GOVERNMENT. pro tem. Mrs. Oberholtzer then addressed the meeting speaking upon school savings Interest on Deferred Payment of your family name.'

OF THIS PROVINCE. Clifford Astle of Northumberland County Lost His Life in Connecticut River-Storm at Fredericton.

Fredericton, N. B., June 26-(Special) -Daniel Astle, of Indiantown, Northumberland county, received the sad intelli gence today, from Laconia (N. H.), of his son Clifford's death by drowning in the Connecticut river. No particulars have been received, but it is supposed he me death while river driving as he was em-ployed in that district. Deceased was 28 years of age and unmarried. The steady down pour of rain all afternoon has made it exceedingly unpleasar for the large number of visitors in the city today. The steamer Aberdeen, which tween the young girls and myself became in tl more and more ardent. After a long hesita tion I decided upon Denise, the younger of the two, for my choice as wife, and I asked her hand in marriage. The grief of Zoe was over-whelming. She tried to dissimi-late it, but alas! her efforts were futile, and she began to evince a profound hatred to the happiest moments of my life. "About this time Denise's health began to fail. She suff red indescribable pain, her disposition changed; she became ner yous and irritable The old family phy sician came daily to see her. He stopped 10 o'clock with the singing of the national me often and asked me the strangest que tions, but I accounted for this by the thought that he was old and in his dotage. Denise grew steadily worse, and soon she was too ill to rise from her be l. Oue even ing, during Zoe's absence, Denise suddenly took my hand in hers. "'Gaetan,' she said to me, 'I am dying. I cried aloud, 'No, no!'

"'If you only realized how-I am dying of poison. 1 am being poisoned by my sister Zoe.'

" 'It is impossible: you are delirious!' " Last night when she thought me sleep. ing, I s. w her pour out the poison. She is jealous of my happiness; she wanted to be your wife. Swear that you will nover marry her!" My dear wie t'rew her arms around me. I swore to her what she wished, and then-Flue dien ' story interested me; 1 was de py impressed. He continued: "You may 'ma, ine 'my grief was awful Z e entered. I s z i her by the throat, and, dragging her neat the hed, confronted her with the dead.

" Miserabie wom n,' 1 said to her, 'be hold your work! I know all.' She threw herself at my feet and confessed her crime 'I will not deliver you over to justice,' I said. 'I do not wish to bring dishonor or

" 'I will disappear,' she replied, sobbing bitterly. I promise you I will disappear forever.' But the next day they found her dead upon her bed-she had taken poison. The two sisters left me all their fortune. "I hoped that all was buried in oblivion Zoe being dead the horrible secret was known to me alone. But I had reckoned without the old doctor. On the return from the cemetery he touched me on my shoulder. "' 'Monsieur le Comte,' he said to me

'allow me to compliment you on your manner of poisoning people.'

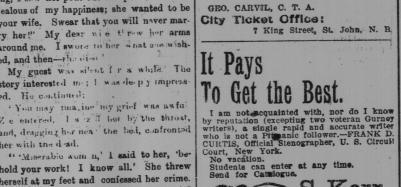

" 'What do you mean?' I demanded. "Let me tell you that your trial will make a noise in the world. I had my suspicions of the death of your wife; to-day I have the proofs. I have analyzed the contexts of the bottle which you used to poison > your sister-in law.' "'What! You accuse me of murd.r?' I

"'Who has profited by this crime?' he said. You, who inherit from both the vie "Appearances were against me; it was enough to make me lose my mind. Then I chemed. I promised to kill myself after going home and arranging my affairs, he to go with me. On the way, at night, I pushed him from the train; he was killed. I said ed him from the train; he was knied. I sha it was an accident, and was saved. "These exciting events burnt into my brain. I became mad—so mad that I was coofined in an asylum Monsieur," he rose, "you know my secret." Joh

ware and the state of

KNOW THYSELF!

As set forth in THE GOLD MEDAL PRIZE TREATISE, the best real Work of this or any age, f The Science of Life.

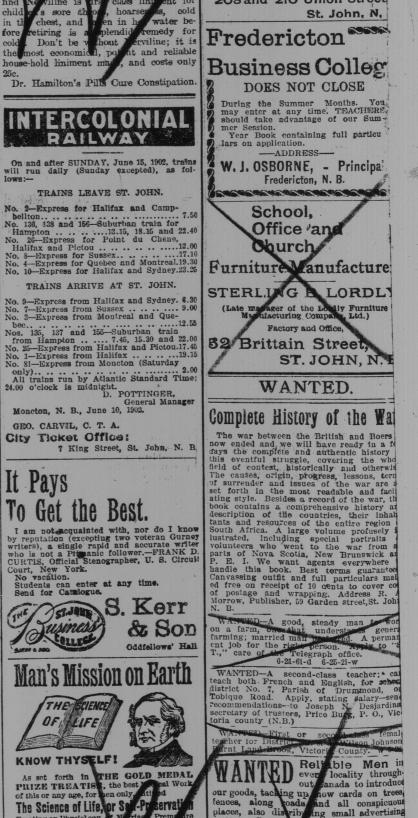

POSITIVE CURE Know Manual, a Vade Mecum FREE, sealed, to men conly, mentioning this paper, 6 cents postage. EDITOR'S NOTE For 40 years the Peabody Medical Institute has been Boston Herald. NOTICE-My Husband said I left his be and boord without any just cause. If it in solution and boord without any just cause. He had none for me to leave, and he said he never would have. I was obliged to leave him for I have had no support from him since I be-came his wife. ALICE I. RICHARDSON.

FOR SALE.

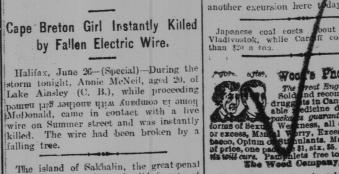

FARM FOR SALE-The subscriber offers or sale his very desirable farm containing 20 acres situated on the post road in the 20 acres situated on the post road in the 20 acres situated on the post road in the 20 acres situated on the post road in the 20 acres situated on the source of the 30 acres of wood land and a good assure; 175 acres of wood land and a good assure; 175 acres of wood land and a good assure; 175 acres of wood land and a good assure; 175 acres of house, one la²⁰ buildings consisting of huse, one i other outbuildings. Reason for sel i age and unable to work. Apply to Wm. Barry, Lower Granville, is Co., N. S.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on city, town, villase or country property in an ounts to (nit at low rate of interest. H. H. Pickett, solicitor, se Princes strest, St. John. 8-12-dw.

man for the second

Wood's Phosphodine is sold in St.

lony of Russia, has splendid forests of

