POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N.B., JANUARY 3, 1973.

WANTED.

hearty reception and high commenda-accorded to our 'New Household Man-and the large sale it has had during short time it has been on the market, es us that this book cannot fall to have nmense circulation. As its merits be-known the demand for it must rapidly se. There is no household book like blished. It contains such information ory family desires to have, and the low at which it is sold places it within each of all.

D-A Second-Class Female Teacher t No. 8, Long Island, parish of District rated poor. Apply, stating Samuel Kingston, Secretary, White from Norfolk.

Plymouth, Jan 1—Ard, str Patricia, from New York for Hamburg via Cherbourg.

SId—Stmrs Cambrian, for London; Kansas, for Liverpool; Pomeranian, for Glasgow; schrs Miles M Merry, for Norfolk; Clara A Donnell, for Norfolk; Cora F Cressey, for Hampton Roads; David P Davis, for Newport News; George V Jordan, for NewYork; Belle Halliday, for New York; Harold J McCarthy, for New York; Laura M Lunt, for Brunswick; Lydia M Deering, for Baltimore; Augustus Hunt, for coal port; Vila Y Hermano, from Portland; F & E Givan, for St John; Ida M, for St John; Leo, for Parrsboro (N S).

boro (N S). Bahia. Dec 29—Ard, bqe Fanns, from St

FOR SALE.

RM FOR SALE—The undersigned offers arm, consisting of 110 acres all under ation, well watered; has a good house rge barns, one artesian well; situated ina, Kings county, N. B., seven miles apphaqui. Terms easy. Inquire of New-arp, Collina, or David H. Rees, Monson

LUABLE OLD BUSINESS, STAND and for Sale—Within easy access to railand steamboats and to St. John city.
n contains 60 acres, including pasture all well fenced and cultivasted. Also cross of wood land, Buildings large and venient, including a first class store. All excellent condition. For further particuapply to S. H. White, Springfield, ligs Co. (N. B.) w 12-20

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN on city, town, village or country property in amounts to suit at low rate of interest. H. H. Pickett, solicitor, 50 Princess street, St. John.

AXWELL-UPTON—At the residence of officiating minister, Rev. W. T. K. mpson, St. John (N. B.), Dec. 31, 1902, res A. Maxwell, of Barnesville (N. B.), Barbara H. Upton, of Sheffield,

93, by the Rev. James A. Duke, scadden, of New York, to Clara ighter of F. E. Cassidy, of Clover

DEATHS.

MACDONALD—In this city, on Dec. 31st, Rev. George W. Macdonald, minister of the Reformed Baptist Church, aged 67 years.

DAY—At Holderville, Kings county, on Dec. 23th, John S. Day, aged 72 years and 9 months, leaving one son and one daughter to mourn their sad loss.

IAWLOR—In this city on Dec 29th, at H. Dolan's residence, 28 Paddock street, after a lingering illness, Michael F. Lawlor, youngest son of the late William Lawlor, of Prookville, leaving one brother and three ters to mourn their loss.

33 ILMORE—At Dipper Harbor, on 23rd it, after a short illness, Miss Catherine knore, daughter of the late Joseph and regaret Belmore, leaving one sister.

OCKHART—In this city on Monday, Dec. Beatrice Eileen, youngest daughter of the Hart Joseph and Harriet A. Lockhart, in the 19th her age.

SHIP NEWS.

Thursday, Jan. 1. Greta, 149, Buck, from Boston.

Cleared.

Thursday, Jan. 1. London City, 1,543, Paterson, for Lon-r St Croix, 1,064, Pike, for Boston.

CANADIAN PORTS. alifax, N S, Dec 30—Ard, stmrs Damara, n Liverpool via St John's (Nfid); Glen-from St John's (Nfid), and sailed to cld for St John. Sid—Stmrs Universe, Agerbolt, for Boston; Halifax, Ellis, for Boston; Silvia, Farrell, for St John's (Nfid). Cld—Schrs Bravo, for Santos, Brazil; Annie Greenlaw, for Banks. Halifax, Jan 1—Ard, str Carthagenian, from Liverpool via St John's (Nfid.) Sid—Str Ask, Hansen, for Jamaica. Sid—Stmrs Dama, Polsen, for Wabana (Nfid); Assyria, Schlaefke, for Boston; Rosalind, Clarke, for New York. Halifax, Dec 30—Ard, stmr Silvia, from New York.

New Preparation Which Everyone Will Need Sooner or Later.

dered more or less, and the commonest of the many so called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than thing to do is to put the food in condi-tion to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help and excretion of the digestive fluids and elieve the congested condition of the

H. E. Willard, Onslow (Ia.), says: White, of Canton, was telling me of your sia from which he suffered for eight ears. As I am a sufferer myself, I wish Sid—Stmr Boston, for Yarmouth; brig W E Stowe, for Lunenburg.

Gloucester, Mass, Dec 30—Ard, schr Eric, from New York for St John.

New London, Conn, Dec 30—Sid, schr H B Homan, from St John for Philadelphia.

Portland, Me, Dec 30—Ard, stmr Hilda, from Parrsboro; schr H A Holder, from Boston for St John.

Sid—The wind bound fleet.

Santos, Dec 30—Sid, stmr Nemea, Smith, for Vittoria and New York.

Vineyard Haven, Mass, Dec 30—Sid, schrs Alaska, from River Hebert for New York: Seth W Smith, from Calais for Fall River.

Boston, Dec 31—Ard, stmrs Osborne, from Newport (Eng); Siam, from Manila; Assyria, from Hamburg; Terje Viken, from Sydney; schrs Landscer, from Bay of Islands; John L Treat, from Weehawken; Benjamin F Pool, from Baltimore; Henry L Peckham, from Norfolk.

Sid—Stmrs Cambrian, for London; Kansas, ders in my case. I suffered for years from lyspepsia, but am now entirely cured and recommend them." It will cost 50c. to find out just ho nuch Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help Signor Marconi at Sydney Banquet Declared That Such May Be the Case in the Future.

Bahia, Dec 29—Ard, bqe Fanny, from St John's (Nfid).

Boothbay Harbor, Me, Dec 31—Ard, schrs Thomas Hix, from Boston; H A Holder, from Boston; S A Fownes, from Boston.

Camden, Me, Dec 31—Ard, schr Mabel Hall, for New York.

City Island, Dec 31—Bound south, schrs Orozimbo, from Calais (Me) via New Haven; J M Harlow, from Bangor; Three Sisters, from Portland (Me).

Bound east—Brig Harry Smith, from Perth Ambey fer Boston.

Hyannis, Mass, Dec 31—Ard, schr J R Bodwell, from Rockland for New York; J Frank Seavey, from Amboy for Stonington (Me).

Marseilles, Dec 30—Ard, bqe Prosperino, from Newcastle (N B).

New York, Dec 31—Ard, schrs Kate B Ogden, from Brunswick; Florence Leland, from Perth Amboy for Boston; Abenaki, from South Amboy for Salem; C C Webrum, from Savannah. At a banquet tendered Sig. Marconi by he citizens of Sydney (C. B.) Tuesday ight the wizard said in part: Wireless telegraphy, would by being a cheaper method of communication become a potent agency in cementing the ties that bind England to her colonies. The cables are efficient and good, but the cost prohave a contract with the dominion government to send commercial messages at a rate of ten cents a word and government business at five cents a word, and don't you think this very cheap in comparison with the rate of 25 cents a word, charged by the cable companies; and don't you also think that this reduction will uo a great deal toward a better understanding and better relations between the two countries? The cable started sending mesages at the rate of £1 a word but have ges at the rate of £1 a word, but have rireless telegraphy, is it not promising t may come down to one cent a word?

The fine collection of postage stamps formed by F. W. Neill, just sold in London for about £2,000, contained a Cape of Good Hope penny blue, 1861, with the error on a piece of original, for which £54 was given.

Atb months old

35 Doses - 35 CENTS

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

Patrick Moore Stricken While in Holy Trinity.

LIVED BUT FEW MINUTES.

Rev. Father Walsh Had But Time to Hurry to His Side and Give Him the Rites of His Church When Death Came.

termination as that which marked the circumstances surrounding the death ing attained the allotted three scoryears and ten his first act at the begin ang of yet another year was to be prent at Holy Trinity church, where, the consciousness of gratitude to his Maker, he was suddenly stricken, and scarce before those around him became sensible of what had happened, his life had gone out with the old year. The dramatic nature of his demise left a very deep impression when those who witness deep impression upon those who witness ed his death. They had seen him walk to his pew and sit down; then a fleeting church steps, with his stilled senses ur and his form inertly heedless of tho

With far greater severity, though, did the shock of his death come to the woman who had been his companion through life, and who had seen him leave home for church, apparently in the best of ro bust health, but a brief half hour prior o again seeing him a corpse. Rev. Father Walsh, pastor of Trinity hurch, where Mr. Moore so suddenly ex minutes before 10 o'clock, and shortly af-ter taking his seat in the family pew, was noticed to fall forward as if in a faint. Those seated near him hurried to his assistance, and he was carried down the aisle and to the front steps of the church, a quick summons being in WIRELESS MESSAGES, meanting sent to Father Walsh, who was donning his vestments.

Moore and perceiving that he was expir-ing, administered the last rites of the church, and read prayers for the dying. A coach was procured as soon as possible, and, in charge of several of the parishioners, the body was conveyed to deceased's home on Main street. Doctor Roberts, North End coroner, was notified, and upon examination de cided an inquest unnecessary.

Deceased was born 71 years ago in County Monaghen, Ireland, but for half a century lived in this city, where have connected with the Harris foundry A widow and two sons survive—Jame of the United States, and Andrew T., morning, from Holy Trinity church.

OBITUARY.

The Death of Dr. C. W Hopkins. A promising graduate of the faculty of nedicine of McGill University passed way last night at the Montreal General Montreal Maternity Hospital. The r about five weeks ago, and was re-duated with honors in nearly every subuperintendent of the Montreal Maternity Hospital, which position death has cast a gloom over the profes-sors and students of McGill, with whom turned out of the medical faculty of Mc future. His death was quite unexpected.

Doctor Hopkins was one of last native of Aroostook Junction (N. B.).

-Montreal Herald.

John Simpson. John Simpson is dead at his residence Ashburn, St. John county. Deceased had attained an advanced age and leaves a widow. Several children died in infancy He came from the north of Ireland 60 years ago and obtained employment with James McAvity, afterwards acting as manager of the farm of the late Wm. H. Scovil at Mount Aston Farm, Coldbrook. Mr. Simpson continued to live in this vicinity for the remainder of his life. He was of industrious nature and was recognized as a true friend and good neighbor.

Sister Mary Basil.

Sister Mary Basil, one of the sisters i St. Vincent's convent, on Cliff street, at the age of 65 years. Sister Mary Basil was formerly Miss Thibideau, of Mada-waska county, and had been a religious for 41 years, 20 of which had been spent

The Rev George W. Macdonald.

The Reformed Baptist church lost its first president and its foremost leader i death of the Rev. George W. Macdonald, when he might have been hired by boat which occurred at 50 King square, the residence of John Hornbrook, where he had been spending the holidays with his daughter, Miss Gertrude Macdonald.

Rev. Mr. Macdonald arrived in St. John on Christmas eve, coming from Grand Manan with his son, Rev. George B. Macdonald, who is in charge of the Reformed Baptist circuit on that island. Rev. Mr. Macdonald was in ill health when he came here, but his condition was not such as to cause his family any anxiety. Wednesday morning he woke up about 4 o'clock and after talking with his son fel! asleep again. He died of heart disease while asleep.

Rev. Mr. Macdonald was born on Grand

Rev. Mr. Macdonald was born on Grand Manan 67 years ago, of Scotch parentage. He was engaged in fishing and when a young man joined the Free Baptist church and later entered the ministry, in which he was engaged for 40 years preaching, chiefly in Sussex, Woodstock and through Carleton acounty. He was actively connected with the holiness movement when it was inaugurated in this province and was the recognized leader in the Free Baptist denomination of those who held ment was discussed in the Free Baptist conference, championing the cause, for which he and five other ministers were expelled on the charge of herosy. Shortly after the Reformed Baptist denomination was organized and Rev. Mr. Macdonald was the first president. For several years he held the pastorate of the church in this city and since then has been in different charges, spending the last two ferent charges, spending the last two years in the Hartland circuit. Rev. Mr. Macdonald was also an active spirit in the yearly conferences and camp meetings at Brown's Flats and was known to thousands over this province who will hear of his death with regret.

His sons are H. H. Macdonald, of this city, Rev. Geo. B. Macdonald, and his daughter Miss Gertrude Macdonald. of ficial stenographer.

On arrival of the train at Woodstock Thursday afternoon the hody of the late Thursday afternoon, the body of the late Rev. G. W. Macdonald was conveyed to the Reformed Baptist church, where a memorial service was held. The building was thronged by those who had come to was thronged by those who had come to know deceased during his pastorate of 11 years in Woodstock.

Rev. B₄ Colpitts, the next oldest clergyman among the Reformed Baptists, presided, and addresses were delivered by him and Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Rev. J. H. Coy, Stephen B. Appleby, K. C., and R. B. Jones. Each was an old personal friend of the late clergyman, and spoke with deep feeling of the force which he had exerted on behalf of temperance, and indeed everything which tended to the uplifting and betterment of humanity. Interment was made in the old cemetery at Broadwing, Rev. Mr. Wiggins officiating at the grave.

Duncan Fraser.

Mrs. H. G. Addy, Thursday, received word from England of the sudden death there of Duncan Fraser. Mr. Fraser was a brother-in-law of Dr. Addy's daughter. Mrs. G. H. Fraser, and a nephew of Mrs Indian railway service. He spent some Noel Gregory.

By Mable Anderson.

up and look about him and not be haunted

by a dread of finding himself face to face with an old friend or acquaintance, or some

That baking, panting day in Jane, as he stifling with the smell of the wood-paving, his mind would revert to a day at least this very spot in a private hansom, and had laughingly boasted that he had never yet edly slow for a busy man like himself," and his ever having any calls on his time, and laughed again at the next bus that passed entirely, and put himself beyond the chauce of meeting any who had known him in his gay affluent days, to spare himself any pity,

He had made a brave fight to get work of closed book, without interest or skill, be-exalted position of a 'bus-driver.

But though he had filled it now for near being recognized. He made a point of go-many a time in fact, he had seen faces he knew quite well, people he had dined with.

men of his own year, and even of his own boat, but, so far as he knew, no one had was a something in his walk, his carriage never get the better or the worse of, partly

Oa this particular day he had a shock heart beat fast, then sank, down, down, heavy with a sudden overwhelming dehe looked slowly away and around with a laughed boisterously. And all the while

All the rest of the afternoon he drove up and down so lost in thought as to be unconscious of his surroundings. Mechanically he drove, mechanically he drew up and went on again. The passengers on top of they addressed him he did not hear them. He was telling himself more and more bitterly with each repetition that his was a life wasted; he had thrown away his chances, he had only brought misery and disgrace on every one who had ever cared for him, he was no use to any one in all the wide world, and was only keeping a more

He had told himself this all the afternoon. By the time the day was waning to tired folk were beginning to mak" their way homewards, he had convinced himself that he would not only give up this particular more effort to get work in his own state of life, fight his way back to his friends again, and win for himself a home and position

He was sick, sick to death of his present mode of life, his wretched room shared with two other men whose every word and look and action jarred on him, the ill-prepared food, badly cooked and worse set before him. To him his refined tastes and sensitiveness had been an uninvestigated pain since he left Oxford. How could he ever marry and settle down as his mates married vening, and the heat was less fervid, and deserving man out of a berth.

or help, or scorn.

the chance.

he never tried.

more risks.

There was no more disc

Hyde Park Corner. More than once he had all London that June day than Noel Gregory. But the great hope for him was that it was himself he was discontented with, neighborhood of the Old Kent Road. At

Hyde Park Corner, please.'

At the sound of the voice, speaking close to his ear. Noel started, and glanced hastidrove his weary horses along the hot streets, broken down his usual control, or he would never have turned his face to hers. In an instant she had recognized him "Noel?" she said half questioningly, -is it you?

"Yes," he said slowly. "This is my no ble occupation." He laughed a short, bit ter laugh. "I think the last time we met I was driving you-with the exhausted looking passengers, and the station in my cart, and you drove." were full of trouble. She hardly knew there completed: and had finished up a was very unhappy, and that he sho drift away again if she could help it. Yes, there was a third certai ty-but she did did not admit it then. osition he had then thought so amusiugly Something in her voice, or her words, the tone of it, or some memory it stirred, softened his hitter mood. "This is where you wanted to get down," he said; "but-canwi)l you go a little further, and tell me some news of yourself and your people? "Of course," she answered readily; "I have nothing particular to do. And I want to talk to you of lots of things.

They talked till they reached the end of one sort or another, but with his past years his route, and all the way back along it yond what he had learnt at Oxford, and not a soul to recommend him, he found this the he was to be forgiven under the circum hardest fight he had ever yet fought. Row-ing was the one thing he excelled in, but stances; it was the first time he had failed in his duty.

Corner again the girl looked anxiously at get down now, or I shall be late for dianer. coming that way; he preferred crowded Noel, promise me you will not vanish again, but that—if—I want you I may count on finding you here."

"I had intended to leave at the end of ly two years, he had never lost his fear of the month," he answered, "but I will stay on until you go home. You will not tell ing along with scarcely a glance at the any one else you have seen me. "I am going, when you are gone back, to give up this, and try to earn my living in my own rank of life. I don't know if I shall succeed, but I must try, and to succeed I must lock up the secret of these two years ecognized him. True he had done all he of my life in my own heart-and you's." could to alter his appearance from that of the well dressed, well groomed Oxford man, and every month of his life these helped somewhat to effect the change, but there "Don't think I am ashamed of it, please,"

he added hastily; "it is not that, "I am only ashamed of myself, but it is that even no avail to one when looking out for pupils, or any other kind of work.' "I see," she said quietly, and rose to go.

because, being quite unconscious of them, "Goodbye; I may see you again soon."
On the third day the 'bus was drawn up with a jerk that sent the passengers lurch-The traffic was stopped by Swan and Edgar's corner of P.ccadilly, hansoms, vans, ing against each other. "I am come," Joan confided, quite un-eccessarily, to Noel's ear, for he had seen busses c owded together as usual. A 'bus was drawn up close alongside his but slightly in advance, and a man looked her long before she was near.

"Noel," she began eagerly, "I want to Gregory's face. For one long, long moment their eyes held each other, Noel's to begin."

"Noel, you know you said you wanted to get some other work. Well, I know of a pression. How the sight of that ene man brought back the might have been! Then "Where is it?" he aske "Where is it?" he asked nervously.

"It is with father," she answered, "You know I told you he was up here to consult a wonderfully acted air of unconcern, gathered up his reins, made a chaffing remark to doctor. Well, the doctor tells him he must the conductor on the 'bus in front and give up a great deal of his work if he does not wish to break down altogether. He has to get a tutor at once to help him or he his heart was heavy and cold as a block of must give up most of his pupils."

Noel looked troubled. "Is it as bad as marble, and he was vowing to himself he would get on to another route, and run no that," he said; "I am awfully sorry."

For a moment she could not speak 'I-But I did not dare, until I had spoken to you. Would you care for it, Noel?" she asked eagerly. "Will you take it?" "Will your father have me?" he asked

"Oh, yes, yes, of course," she cried, "he would love to have you." "And you?" he asked anxiously. "Oh I-I would be very pleased," she nswered demurely. "Are the boys small?" he asked.

"Oh, then I can soon rub up my Latin and Greek sufficiently." That night Noel gave notice to leave. Two years later Noel Gregory, the pro prietor of a very flourishing preparatory school for boys, came to London with his young wife. "You must take me to Hyde Park Corner on our 'bus," she said; 'that is the part of our honeymoon I have looked forward to most."

"If you had come a week later von wou'd not have found me, darling," taking her hand in his, regardless of the outious eyes on the 'bus drawn up near them. "I wonder what would have become of me. My word, Joan, it is too dreadful to think of!"

"Don't, don't talk of it," she said gravely. 'What a chance But it was to be, you see, dear"
"Yes, yes, it was to be. Thank God."

and settled down! And if he could not be happy with a wife such as they chose, where coughs, colds, horrseness, and con-allments are quickly relieved by Oreso tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists. was he to find one that would please him? Who was he, to aspire to what he aspired

ECIAL NOTICE TO AGENTS

D-For District No. 9, in the par-kefield, county of Carleton, for il term, a First-Class Female alary $90. Apply to Geo. MacLeod, o Trustees, Farmerston, Carleton 12-31 21 w

D-A Second Class Female Teacher t No. 5, Parish of Lorne. District for, Half railway fare refunded. ry wauted. Address, W. H. Mil-tary to Trustees, Nictau, Victoria ounty.

MARRIAGES

ODEN-CASSIDY-At Hampton, or

Savannah.

Sid—Schrs General E S Greely, for Boston; Stanley H Miner, for Boston; Alexandra, for St Croix; Job H Jackson, for Jacksonville;
Richard F Hertley, for Jacksonville; Wm H
Sumner, for Brunswick.
Pernambuco, Dec 30—Sid, bge Dunure, for St John's (Nfdd).
Portland, Dec 31—Ard, stmrs Bosnia, from Hamburg; North Star, from New York,
Sid—Stmrs Kildona, for London; Britannic, for Sydney (C B); Symra Sapelo, for Georgia;
sohrs Van Allens Boughton and Augustus Welt, from coal porta; bge Enterprise, for Basia Blanca.
Rockhand, Me, Dec 31—In port, bgetn
Cuba, from coal port (discharging); bgetn
Elmiranda, from Frankport for Philadelphia.
Sid—Schr Wm Bisbee.
Salem, Mass, Dec 31—Sid, schrs James R
Talbot, for New York; Red Jacket, for New York.

Talbot, for New York; Red Jacket, for New York.

Vineyard Haven, Mass, Dec 31—Ard and sid, bge Samuel H Nickerson, from Montevideo for Boston, in tow; schr Jordan L Mott, from Norfolk for Rockport (Me).

Ard—Schrs A J Miller, from Boston for New York; Fraulein, from St John for New York; Clara Jane, from Calais for New Suffolk (L I).

Returned—Schr Alaska, from River Hebert (N. St. New York;

PORT OF ST. JOHN. Arrived. tmr Kastalia, 2561, Webb, from Glasgow, bofield & Co. general cargo.

Stmr Evangelane, 1417, Heeley, from Lonnyla Hellfax, Wm Thomson & Co.general.

Tuesday, Dec. 30.

Schr Frank L P, 124, Williams, from Bostan, master, bel.

York: Clara Jane, from Calais for New Suffolk (L I).
Returned—Schr Alaska, from River Hebert (N S) for New York.

Passed—Schrs Chas S Hirsch and Chas L Jeffrey, from South Amboy for Boston; Luis G Rabel, from Port Johnson for Portland; O M Marrett, from South Amboy for Hurricane Island.

Boothbay Harbor, Jan 1—Ard, sch Keewaydin, from Parrsboro.

Hyannis, Jan 1—Ard, sch Abbie & Eva Hooper, for a coal port.

SId—Sch J Frank Seavey, for Stonington-Machias, Jan 1—Ard, sch Salaska, from Belfast; Hortensia, from Bar Harbor.

Portland, Jan 1—Ard, str Granaria, from Sydney (C B.)

Rockland, Jan 1—Sid, bqein Cuba, for Parrsboro; sch Hattie C, for Parrsboro.

Salem, Jan 1—Ard, sch Otis Miller, from St John for Newport.

Vineyard Haven, Jan 1—In port, schs Fraulein, from St John for New York.

Ard—Schs J L Colwell, from Port Greville for New York. chr Frank L P, 124, Williams, from Bos1, master, bal.
'oastwise—Schr Alph B Parker, 46, Out:se, from Tiverton.

Wednesday, Dec. 31.
mr St Croix, 1,060, Pike, from Boston via ae ports, W G Lee, mdse and pass.
'r Laura C Hall, 99, Rockwell, from York, F & L Tutts, oak.
stwise—Schr Little Annte, 16, Poland, Campobello, and cld for return.

Thursday, Jan. 1. Steamers.

Athalie, 1406, to load in January.

Bengore Head, 1619, at Hallfax, Dec 5.

Corinthian, 4018, to sail from Liverpool

Jan 1.

Jan 1.

Cunaxa, 2034, at Boston, Dec 26.

Dunmore Head, 1459, at Dublin, Dec 23.

Florence, 1609, at London, Dec 25.

Indrani, 2339, at Glasgow, Nov 20.

Lake Erie, 4314, Liverpool, Dec 29.

Lake Megantic, 3243, at Avonmouth, Dec. 24.

Loyalist, 1419, at London, Dec 14.

Manchester City, 3727, at Manchester, Dec 17.

Manchester Commerce, 3444 at Manchester, Dec 9.

Numidian, 3167, te sail from Liverpool, Dec 25.

Oruro, 1248, from Barbados, Dec. 27. York.

twise—Schrs Alph B Parker, Outhouse, verton; Suste Prescott, Daly, for Point

Ophir, Pettis, for Port Greville; Bros, Golding, for Quaco.

Wednesday, Dec. 31.

r Montcaim, Evans, for Liverpool, & Son.

Tuesday, Dec. 30.

or E H Weaver, for New York.

Wednesday, Dec. 31.

br C R Flint, Maxwell, for City Island
Stetson, Cutier & Co.

Shipping Notes St. Michaels, Jan. 1.—The British steame. Pontiac, Venice Dec. 2, via Trieste for Bos ton and New York, has arrived here with machinery disordered.

Oruro, 1248, from Barbados, Dec 27 Pretorian, 2910, to sail from Liverpool Jan 8 Tritonia, 2720, Glasgow, Dec 28.

LIST OF VESSELS BOUND TO ST. JOHN

London, Jan. 1.—The British steamer Sir Richard Grenville, from Boston, before re-ported ashore at Malmo, has been floated.

900 Drops THAT THE FAC-SIMILE AVegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regula-ting the Stomachs and Bowels of -- OF-INFANTS CHILDREN Promotes Digestion, Cheerful ness and Rest Contains neither Opnum, Morphine not Mineral. ON THE WKAPPER Recipe of Old Dr. SAMUEL PITCE Pumpkin Ses d -Alx Senna + Rodulls Selts -Anies Soeä + Amperimint -H Carbonate Sedo + Viern Seed -Clarited Gugar Hintergroon Flave: OF EVERY OTTLE OF Aperfect Remedy for Constipa-tion, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of SLEEF. Fac Simile Signature of Chatt Fleteter. NEW YORK.

SEE

SIGNATURE

Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow anyone to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." As See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.