Semi-Weekly Telegraph. ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 16, 1910.

JAPAN'S RAPID ADVANCE.

While Russia has not yet begun to fight on the land and while the world has yet to hear of a decisive battle in which the skill and courage of the yellow men have been fairly tried against the dogged men of the white race...

A CONTEMPORARY'S TROUBLE.

The Telegraph Herald gets out of the editorial block and tackle for the purpose of dragging The Telegraph out of a pit of error. The Herald discovers that the Telegraph does not know anything at all about the present status of the Grand Trunk Pacific project...

THE SECRET BALLOT.

The new ballot bill, now in the hands of a committee, which is to report to the legislature on Tuesday next, contains several provisions which make it superior to the Dominion act, and it will, of course, be infinitely superior to the provincial law now in force...

THE SESSION.

It is anticipated in the speech from the throne that the session just begun at Ottawa will be a short one. Shorter than the last one it certainly should be, and if the government succeeds in limiting the discussion of its railroad policy, a few weeks should suffice for the transaction of the country's business...

has led the administration farther and farther away from the popular feeling concerning the solution of the transportation question. As it stands the people are asked to build the railway but are not to be permitted to own it...

OUR WARY NEIGHBORS.

Hon. Clifford Sifton stands charged with the atrocious crime of dragging the United States of America into the Far Eastern trouble and trying to get the American people to rescue the British Empire from a peril, with which it is not yet squarely confronted...

DISCUSSING MR. BLAIR.

As was natural enough Mr. Blair's name, his anti-G. T. Pacific speech and his tame acceptance of office under the government had defied, figured freely in Monday's debate on the speech from the throne...

UNEASY MONSIEUR BOURASSA.

Losing sight of the truth that a good citizen should seek to soften rather than accentuate any differences of opinion which may exist between the English-speaking and French-speaking people of Canada, Mr. Hon. Bourassa is to the fore once more shouting his French nationalism...

WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

A marked copy of the Christian Science Sentinel (Boston) (copyright 1904) by Mary Baker Eddy, dated in 1904 by The Telegraph. The article marked for notice and consideration is one in which complaint is made that the daily newspapers print news articles concerning Christian Science which would be suppressed if the persons concerned were Methodists, Baptists or Presbyterians...

that a Scientist can effect the cure of any or all human ailments. It is a fact, however, that the law v. properly directed in certain cases parents or guardians shall summon medical aid for their children or wards and that there shall be no useless sacrifice of life because any particular person's opinion in regard to disease are opposed to those of the majority by whom and for whose protection the law are framed...

ANTICS IN MAINE.

Stories of the sacrifice of animals and the threats to excite children during the recent "religious" ceremony at Beal's Island, near Jonesport, Maine, have occupied considerable space in the newspapers from St. John to Florida, but not until now has it been proclaimed that New Brunswick is responsible for the disgraceful antics in the Maine village...

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The remarkable feature of the Japanese account of the last attack upon Port Arthur is that it agrees with the Russian version. Mr. Hazen no doubt will deny that the mysterious person, discovered in the cellar of the legislative building was a creature of the opposition employed to undermine the government, but we suspect that Mr. Tweedie will be unconvicted...

THE MAYOR HAS CALLED A PUBLIC MEETING.

The mayor has called a public meeting at the Board of Trade rooms next Tuesday evening which should be attended by a large number of influential and public-spirited citizens. The object of the meeting is to decide whether or not the people of this city are in favor of the barrack square site for the proposed new drill shed...

THE CARLETON SENTINEL.

The Carleton Sentinel, which voices the views of Mr. Frank Carvell, informs the local government that nothing is to be gained by "further procrastination" in the matter of appointing a solicitor general. Moreover the Sentinel says the people of Carleton, "regardless of political affiliations," will expect Mr. Wendell P. Jones to succeed Mr. Mackay...

moment to question Mr. Brodeur's motives and impugn his accuracy, for until we have seen the last act of the great war drama in the Far East there must remain the danger that Great Britain may be involved, and strongly as Canadians hope that such complications may be avoided there can be no question that this country would be heart and soul with the Motherland in desperate war as in smiling peace...
