Harvey Station, Aug. 22-Mrs. Margery Atchison, of Houlton, accompanied by her youngest daughter, 'Miss Hannah Atchi-son, arrived here on Friday evening. They ntend in future to make their home a Manners Sutton, Mrs. Atcheson, who is in spending some weeks here. Henry 92nd year stood the journey from Houlton remarkably well and is very strong for a person of her age.

Harve ting has been begun in this dis-trict and several fields of wheat have gone down before the binder. Oats are not more than half a crop and wheat is not much better. The huckwheat crop is a little more promising. Root crops will not be Miss up to the average. The body of Fred Manning, of St. John who was killed on the railway Wednesday, was interred in the Presbyterian urying ground here on Friday morning, Rev. J. A. McLean-officiating at the grave. The body of Mrs. Perey Howard, of Lewiston, Maine,who died there on Thursday, was brought here on Saturday for burial. The funeral took place yesterday. Mrs. Howard was the eklest daughter of the late John G. Coleman, of Manners

Sutton, and had been married but a short time. She died of consumption. Rev. F. W. Barker, of Amesbury (Mass.) occupied the pulpit in the station church last evening.

PARKINDALE.

Parkindale, Elgin, N. B., Aug. 22-There was a social held here in the hall last Saturday evening with good success. Al-though the night was very wet yet a good crowd gathered and $45 was realized which goes toward the debt on the hall Much credit is due to the auctioneer, Wil lie Webster, of Elgin, in the manner which he handled the baskets. # HARTLAND.

Hartland, Ang. 23-The reorganization of the Hartland I. O. G. T. was completed last night, the 22nd, by Lodge Deputy W. D. Keith, held in the Baptist vestry. The fol-lowing officers were installed: Chief temp-lar, H. F. Perkins; vice chief tempfar, Bith Konnedy; past chief templar, Judson Currie; corresponding secretary. A. G. McFarland; assistant secretary, LFy Currie; financial secretary, Hayden Tracy; treasurer, Herbert Corey; marshall, Stanley Johnson; deputy marshall, Abble Nevers; guard, Wendel Tracy; sentinel, William Nevers; chaplain, Rev. B. O. Hartuma. This worthy society at one time had a strong footbold in this place, bith during the last decade some of the members have passed away, and others again moved from our midst. We sincerely trust this reorganiza-tion will prosper, it should have, and we curst it will receive the support of all our cuizens.
