Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend, Or read in his morning journal. Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines, And considered the matter nocturnal.

Then they told him another advantage they had over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could make.

And from four he might sure get the best. The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly tried,
The "Domestic" and "Osborne" as well.
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilso too light,
And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

The "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried, The "Ætna," "Blees," "Leavitt" and "Weed, fill worried and vexed with his fruitless research He scarce hoped in the end to succeed, After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family" kept, And they quickly relieved his distress. He acknowledged the truth of reports.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong,

That he quickly decided to take it. J. D. LAWLOR. Manufacturer of the New Singer Family, feb 25 46 King street COAL COAL.
