

Course of Study.

The following courses will be provided in the different years:—

FIRST YEAR.

This course is adapted to meet the requirements of students preparing for Grade D.

English Grammar, Literature and Composition Special attention will be given to Punctuation, Synthesis, Paragraphing, Scansion, Oral and Written Abstracts etc. Dalglish's Introductory Text book of Composition. English Grammar in Part.

History—Outlines of British History. British American History reviewed.

Geography—North America and Europe, with mapping.

• Arithmetic—As in Hamblin Smith, to end of Profit and Loss, with additional exercises.

Geometry—Hamblin Smith. Book I, with exercises.

Algebra To Equations. Todhunter.

Physics—A series of lectures with practical experiments, based upon Gage's Elements of Physics.

Botany—Gray's "How Plants Grow," with analysis of more common flora.

Latin—Smith's Principia Latina, Part I., Collar and Daniell's Latin Grammar, with exercises in translation and construction of sentences.

French—(Optional) Principia, Part I.

Book-keeping—Single entry.