

WATERLOO NEWS RECORD

Pte. Robert Dyer Is Coming Home

Word was received this morning in the form of a cablegram, that Pte. Robert Dyer, of Waterloo, would be leaving England for Canada shortly. Pte. Dyer left here four years ago with the original fighting 18th Battalion and was present in all the big Canadian battles. He was with the Canadian army of occupation and was stationed in Bonn, Germany. Whilst here the Canadians were well treated by the German inhabitants in every way, he says. Pte. Dyer is at present in the town of Lewis on the South Coast of England, and expects to receive his sailing date any time now. Good fortune has followed him right along, having been through the South African war without receiving injuries. He is a brother to Sargent Major Dyer of Ottawa.

QUITE SPRINGLIKE.

The weather of yesterday was most ideal being fine and mild and full advantage was taken of it by our towns people. While autos are naturally not as numerous as in summer still a great many took advantage of the fine weather and many could be seen around the town.

Many preferred the old style of walking for exercise and while it was slightly under foot this was not any hindrance and many walked to Kitchener and back. Judging by the number of people who strolled through the Park our Citizens are anxiously awaiting the coming of summer so they can enjoy a stroll through this popular recreation grounds.

AT ST. JOHN'S YESTERDAY.

There was a large congregation at St. John's Lutheran Church last night, who thoroughly enjoyed two excellent addresses by two of the students at the Seminary and College.

Mr. Leon Irshick speaking on "The Churches Part in the Reconstruction Period," and Mr. R. Geelhaas on "Prospects with Regard to Mission Work in Northern Ontario." Both addresses were delivered in Masterly style being clear and concise in every detail and showed marked ability on the part of the students who had given much careful thought and study to these two very important subjects. The choir of the church rendered special music and a hearty response was made in the Collection for Missions.

AT THE PRINCESS.

Undoubtedly the Princess Theatre is coming into its own and the past week the attendance at all performances were most gratifying to the new management. On Saturday evening standing room was at a premium and the special feature by Mrs. Sashbury, in "Twenty One," proved to be all that the management said it would be. The film was one of the best shown at this little theatre and as many more excellent films are booked from now on the public are assured of something extraordinary in the movie line. As a special added attraction Mr. Lyon rendered a vocal solo much to the delight of the large audience. The serial "The Fatal Ring" and a Harold Lloyd Comedy completed a most excellent bill.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Hodgins and Mr. G.E. Hawkins spent the week end with friends in Guelph.

Mr. Oscar Ruppe of Elmira is a business visitor in town this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Morrison of Stratford spent the week end with friends in town.

Disappearance of Soap.

Several charges of receiving stolen goods were heard in Police Court this morning. The defendants were George Trussler and Rudolph Hilker. They pleaded not guilty. Two cases arose out of the disposal of one hundred cakes of soap which three lads, Joseph Kipper, Willie Fischer and Clarence Ludwig, swore they found behind Schell Grocers' barn, some of which was left at Trussler's livery and the rest with Hilker, they alleged. Fleischauer said all told he was paid a dollar for the soap by Hilker.

Mr. George Schell testified as to missing some soap, and further than this he knew nothing. Mr. Trussler denied the statement of the boys that he had been approached by them; that he had received any good from them and he swore he knew nothing about the matter.

Mr. Hilker stated he had first asked the boys whether they had stolen the soap, some eighty cakes of which the boys later sold to him. The boys emphatically said they had not, but declared they had found it in a lumber yard or in some lumber heap. He did not suspect theft on their part, especially after their emphatic denial. He accepted the soap and had forgotten all about it since this happened, namely, on Nov. 17th.

Then came the summons. After reviewing the case and the opinion of Mr. E.W. Clement, counsel for the defendant, Mr. Trussler, the Magistrate came to the conclusion that a case had been made out by the Crown. The final disposition of the matter was left over until next Monday.

Crown Attorney D.S. Bowiby appeared for the Crown. Inspector Pullam of the Children's Aid Society also was present. Charge Dismissed. Another charge in Police Court today was that of having a rug not his own in his possession. The defendant was George Trussler, who pleaded not guilty. William Gabel and E. Gabel, the owners of the rug, identified the rug as theirs and the former stated that the defendant at his livery barn said he found an extra rug not his own and didn't know how it came there. The defendant also gave evidence that he didn't know how it got there. The charge against him was dismissed.

One of Defendants Ill

Charges of implications in theft against Harold Randall, Rudolph Hilker, David Bush and E. Reinhart were not proceeded with in Police Court today, owing to the illness of the last mentioned defendant. The charges will be heard next Monday.

LARGE CROWDS TURNED AWAY FROM ALMA ST. U. B. CHURCH

Meetings Continue This Week Both Saturday and Sunday night the Alma St. U. B. Church could not hold the crowds that came to hear Mrs. Durham preach. On Sunday night every available room in the church was used long before time to begin the evening service. On Sunday morning Evangelist Durham preached to a large congregation from Jer. 6:16 "Ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein." The Evangelist said we need most of all the old kind of family religion, where grace is said at the table, family worship held, where fathers and mothers pray, live holy lives, and rear their children in the fear of the Lord. "Many are longing for the old time religion and asking for the old paths, but are not ready to walk therein. If Christian professors and church members would walk in the straight and narrow way, the churches would have more power, and more souls would be won for Christ," said Mrs. Durham. In the evening the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, many were listening from the basement and many were turned away. The Evangelist spoke from Luke 14:25-33. The subject was "Counting the Cost." "As none but a foolish man," said Mrs. Durham, "would begin to build a tower without counting the cost or none but a foolish king would make war against a mightier host than his own, so none should go on living in sin and rejecting Christ without counting the cost. The price paid to live an ungodly life is wasted manhood, sorrow and pain in this life and eternal sorrow in the life to come. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life."
