

COFFEE

Purchasing is one of the most trying offices of the housewife. How discouraging it is to try a particular brand, and find it tolerable—A second trial of the same brand intolerable. It is not so with Malcolmson's Coffees.

They are dependable coffees, always the same, pure, wholesome and refreshing.

The Letter-Box

THE FOOTBALL MINSTRELS.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—Your columns yesterday, above the signature of Mr. A. H. Vongunten, contained a query as to the whereabouts of the receipts of the Football Club from the Minstrel performance, and the suggestion that the Club give a detailed account of its expenditure.

We regret that the personnel of the committee (Messrs. W. H. Brackin, chairman; C. B. Sissons, treasurer; P. G. Piggett, secretary; Frank D. Laurie, J. W. Plewes, P. B. Petherly, H. W. Anderson, W. McK. Messer, H. C. Philp and Fred H. Brisco) should not have been thought a sufficient guarantee of both the probity and the wisdom of its acts, and that the good people of Chatham who have so liberally supported us in the past should have thought that the Club has failed in its duty.

We might state in answer, that only yesterday afternoon a meeting held for the passing of all accounts, and that any statement before that time would have been premature. A meeting of the Club will be held in the course of a couple of weeks, at which those members of the Club who are sufficiently interested to attend will have an opportunity of hearing and receiving or rejecting the report of the committee, and a detailed report from the Treasurer.

We regret exceedingly if any of those who are not members of the Club but have "so generously patronized our benefit," either by advertising in our program or by purchasing tickets, should feel that we have done them an injustice. We indeed hope that the prices were not higher than the standard of the performance warranted, and shall earnestly endeavor to make ample returns to our advertisers for their patronage.

Yours truly,
P. G. PIGGETT,
Secretary.

FORGERY ALLEGED

An interesting motion came up before Judge Bell this morning. In the suit of Fred H. Brisco vs. Annie Stewart and H. J. Reynolds, of Muirkirk, the plaintiff is suing on a promissory note, alleged to be endorsed by defendant, H. J. Reynolds. The defendant Reynolds says that the endorsement is a forgery. The plaintiff to-day moved for judgment and got a verdict against defendant Annie Stewart; the defendant H. J. Reynolds being allowed to defend unconditionally, costs of motion to be costs in the cause. W. G. Richards for plaintiff, Crown Attorney and Clerk of the Peace Herbert David Smith for defendant Reynolds.

"IT'S GOOD TEA."
This is what the proprietor of Red Rose Tea claims for it. Some say the claim is too modest, but you may notice that a grocer is very often asked,—"Have you any good tea?" The word "good" in this sense is probably intended to mean "best." So perhaps Red Rose Tea is The Best Tea.

TEN MEN SUMMONED.

Charged With Breaking up Mr. Munns' Meeting.

Toronto, March 11.—County Constable Burns, who has been engaged for the past two weeks in collecting evidence against the persons who broke up Mr. William Munns' meeting at Aurora on Feb. 17, returned to the city last night from Aurora, where he served ten young men with summonses to answer a charge of unlawful assembling. The summonses are returnable on Friday morning before Magistrate Peter Ellis at the Aurora Town Hall.

The informations were laid by Mr. Munns, and against Milton Fleury, Wm. Flicker, Lock Linton, Wm. Wilson, Thos. Turan, I. Norton, Victor Bond, J. Odey, Henry Alder and John Ough. All are residents of Aurora. Mr. Munns wanted the cases tried in Toronto, but High Constable Ramsden and Crown Attorney Dewar objected, on the score of expense. Mr. Gideon Grant, who is acting for the complainant, has had a private detective working the case, independent of the investigation conducted by High Constable Ramsden and County Constable Burns. Crown Attorney Dewar will conduct the prosecution.

Uriah Marsh, a Newmarket farmer, will be tried the same day on a charge of assaulting County Constable Wallace on the evening before the North York election. Wallace is a resident of this city, and is an ex-member of the Toronto Police Force.
