
ANNO PRIMO & SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

C A P. CXII.

An Act for indemnifying those who have issued or acted under certain parts of a certain Ordinance made under colour of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada."

[16th August, 1838.]

1 Vic. c. 9.

WHEREAS an Act was made this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada;"—And whereas a certain Law or Ordinance hath been made and published by the Governor of the said Province, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June last, intituled, "An Ordinance to provide for the security of the Province of Lower Canada," which Ordinance cannot be justified by Law, but was so much intended for the security of the said Province, that it is expedient that all persons advising or acting under or in obedience to so much of the same as relates to the sending of certain persons to Bermuda, who are stated in the same to have made certain Confessions, and to the subjecting of such persons to restraint, should be indemnified by Parliament in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided for:—Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that all personal actions and suits, indictments, informations, and all prosecutions and proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be prosecuted or commenced in any Court or before any Tribunal in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, against any person or persons for or by reason of any act, matter, or thing advised, commanded, appointed, or done in relation to the premises

Indemnity for persons advising or acting under an Ordinance of the Governor and Council of
