

- amble, 67.—When a report is unfavorable, it must contain the grounds of objections, 68.—And then the bill cannot be placed on the Orders of the Day, without special leave, 68.—Copies of all amended bills may be attached to the report, 69.
7. Suspension of Rules.—No motion therefor is entertained unless reported upon by the Committee on Standing Orders, 57.
8. Fees and Expenses.—A fee of Sixty Dollars is paid immediately after the second reading of a bill in the House in which it originates; the costs of preparing and printing the same are also paid by the parties, and 350 Copies in English, and 200 in French, when the bill relates to Lower Canada, are deposited with the Clerk, as well as a certificate from the Queen's Printer (before the 3rd reading) that he has been paid, 60.
9. Bills amended by the Assembly.—Important amendments are referred to the Private Bill Committee or to a Committee of the Whole, 71.
10. Bills originating in the Assembly.—based on a Petition not already reported on, are taken into consideration and reported upon, after the first reading, by the Committee on Standing Orders, 56.
- Privileges, Committee of*.—appointed, 3.—Reports names of Members deceased, absent or who have vacated their seats, 4.
- Prorogation of Parliament*.—Tickets of admission are required at the, 6.
- Protests*.—must be entered and signed in the Clerk's Book, with or without reasons, before the rising of the House, at the next sitting, 23.—They are subject to the control of the House, 24.—Absent Members are not allowed to protest, 24.

Q

- Quarrels*.—The House interferes in quarrels between Members, 20.
- Question*.—A Member must speak to question, 21.—And only once, except in explanation or reply, or in Committee of the Whole 22.—May require the question to be read, 27.—Not allowed to speak after the question has been entirely put, 28.—What motions are received when a question is under debate, 36.
- Quorum*.—consists of ten Members, including the Speaker, 8.—The Speaker adjourns for want of a quorum, thirty minutes after the time of meeting, 8.—The names of the Members present are to be