

37 Victoria, Chapter 37 D.

In the matter of the application of George Branford Cox, of the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, Gentleman, for a divorce.

I, Philip Holt, of the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, Esquire, do solemnly declare,

That I am the Solicitor of the said George Branford Cox.

That J. W. McKinley, of Los Angeles, in the State of California, is the Attorney for Emily Cox, who resides in the said State of California.

That the said Emily Cox is the person from whom the said George Branford Cox is now seeking a divorce.

That upon the sixth day of February, A. D., 1885, I sent the telegram which is now shown to me, marked "A," and which is hereto annexed, to the said J. W. McKinley, and I did on the seventh day of February, A.D., 1885, receive the reply which is now shown to me, marked "B," and which is hereto annexed, from the said J. W. McKinley; that the said Emily Cox, from whom the said George Branford Cox now seeks a divorce, is the same identical person as is referred to in the said telegrams.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled: "An Act for the suppression of Voluntary and Extra-judicial Oaths."

Declared before me, at the Town of Goderich, } in the County of Huron, this 7th day of } February, A.D., 1885. }

PHILIP HOLT.

FRED. W. JOHNSTON,
A Commissioner, &c.

This is Exhibit "A," referred to in the declaration made before me by Philip Holt, this 6th day of February, 1885.

S. MALCOMSON,
A Commissioner, &c.

LOS ANGELOS, 31st October, 1884.

GENTLEMEN,—I received your letter on the 27th of the month, and I started to Los Angeles the next morning to see the gentleman you told me in your letter to call on, and of course found him in his office, and told him my business, and he told me all about it, and also told me that I would have no trouble at all in taking the papers out to the party, so I had to hire a horse and buggy to go out there, and when I got out there I found them away from home, but I waited around there for about an hour and a half, but they did not come, and I had to return to the city, and next day went out again and seen him and told him my business, and told him that I wanted to see his wife; he told me that I could not see her as she was sick, and I told him that I had nothing to say to her at all but just to give her a paper, and he told me that he would take the paper, and that I could not see her, so I told him that it was to her that the paper belonged, and to her and no other would I give it to. Well, he told me that I could not see her, and said good morning to me; so I told him that I would see if I could not see her when I went into town. So I came back to town, but it was too late to see Mr. Will Gould, so the next morning I called on him, and it was just about noon, and he was not at liberty to see me just then, but told me to call back at one o'clock and he would go and see his lawyer, and as I was waiting for him to come back this man and his wife came up to his office, so I went out and found Mr. Gould and told him that they were up in his room waiting for him. So he asked me
