

Anti-nuke speakers coming

The University of Alberta Chaplain's Association is sponsoring the visit of James and Shelley Douglass to Edmonton, November 7-11, to speak at a series of meetings on the various aspects of the nuclear arms issue.

Jim is a lay Catholic theologian, teacher, activist, and writer (The Non-violent Cross, Resistance and Contemplation). He has participated in Vatican II, worked with Thomas Merton, and taught at Notre Dame University and the University of Hawaii.

Shelley has followed training for ordination in the United Church of Canada.

For most of the past four years Jim and Shelley have worked full time as founders and principal animators of the Pacific Life Community, which is based in Washington State and Vancouver, B.C. During this time they, together with an ever-growing community, have been campaigning actively to oppose the Trident Nuclear Submarine Missile System, with particular focus on the Trident base at Bangor, Washington, 60 miles south of Vancouver.

A public meeting titled Living at the End of the World and Simple Living in the Nuclear Age will be held Friday at noon in SUB Theatre.

The Douglasses will also lead a "Non-Violence Training Workshop" Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the SUB Meditation Room. Registration is $3.00 and is available through the Chaplain's office, 432-4621.
