

Williams-Bullied in shutouts

Shutouts are commonplace to Craig Williams and Len Bullied as the stingy pair took turns helping Mississauga Reps register identical 3-0 Metro Toronto Hockey League victories over Clarkson Reps and Malton Jets.

Opposing teams in the Minor Peewee A Division have been finding it most difficult to bend the twin behind the two superlative puck stoppers all season.

The latest act of thievery by Williams came at the expense of Clarkson while teammate Bruce Behrend was busy sinking the foe with a pair of goals. Jeff Kostick helped out with a single.

Bullied was no more hospitable versus Malton and got all the help he needed from John Flynn and Mark Henderson.

PEEWEE AA
Christie Cookies couldn't cool off the hot Toronto Flames and were burned 4-2. R.J. Thompson and M. Connell did the honors for Christies.

In an earlier meeting, Cookies thumped the Toronto Kings 4-1 with T. Hegnum notching a pair. Mike Sawyer and G. Gilbert added loners.

ATOM AA
In a pair of thrillers, Rex Lumber took a pair of 2-1 wins over Toronto Kings and Toronto Red Wings.

In a battle for second place, Lumber spotted Kings the first goal and roared back on singles by Chris Peterson and David Rogers. Lumber knocked off first place Red Wings when David Emerson sent in Scott Brockie all alone for the clincher. Jeff Smith opened the scoring for Lumber, who got flawless goaltending from Kirk Thompson.

MINOR ATOM AA
Consolidated - Fastfrate used an all around team effort to crown the Toronto

Kings 4-1. Ken McNulty spearheaded the attack with a duo while Stephen Macdougall and Steve Franchetto collected singles.

Blair Holder was Fastfrate's sole runner as North York edged Reps 2-1.

BANTAMA
With 20 seconds to go, Martingrove banged home the winner for a 5-4 conquest over Crescent Plumbing and to ruin a spectacular four goal outburst by Joseph Francia.

Steve Wickham scored two goals and an assist and Dean McNulty fired a goal and helped on two others as the Plumbers rebounded for a 4-1 triumph over Red Wings. Steve Richardson rounded out the attack with a single.

MINOR MIDGET
After skating to a 2-2 battle with Bert Robinson, Reps trounced Faustina 10-0.

Steve Cruickshank sparked the landslide with three markers followed by a pair off the stick of Marc Forget, Chris Costello, Paul Ancinelli, Ross Brindley, Brian Doyle and Mike Fitzgerald notched solos.

Versus Bert Robinson, Brindley and Russ Plumb

pulled out goals for Mississauga.

MINOR PEEWEE AA
Ken Strong rifled the winner as Reps bested Red Wings 2-1 in a game that could have gone either way. Mike Hough had opened the scoring for Reps.

Mississauga wasn't as lucky the next outing as they suffered a 3-2 setback to Toronto Kings.

Strong and Steve Robinson turned the red light on for Mississauga.

MINOR ATOM A
Darryl Wilcox was the only Rep to find the range as Scott's Colonels dropped a 3-1 decision to Toronto Olympics.

MINOR BANTAMA
Stalwart goaltending by Dave McDougall and a crucial goal by Derrick Dacosta enabled Reps to gain a 1-1 tie with Warren Park.

Earlier in the week, Dacosta struck again but Reps had to settle for another tie, a 2-2 stalemate with Royal York. Tom Jordan was the other Mississauga marksman.

Argo player found God

Pete Muller plays professional football for the Toronto Argonauts but he also plays for God.

"I'm grateful to be playing football but my greatest thrill was not making pro — my greatest thrill was down in college when I discovered that God loved me," Muller told a large father and son gathering of parishioners at the Erindale Bible Chapel Friday evening.

Muller signed with the double blue in 1973 as a tight end and quickly became the club's chapel leader.

"I have a vitality I didn't have before and I play football for God because He loves me and sent his only son to die for me," says Muller.

Muller related to his listeners that while on a football scholarship at the University of Western Illinois, he discovered God and that it significantly helped his purpose in life.

The tall tight end was nominated last year by the Boatmen for the Schenley Award as the Canadian player in the Canadian Football League.

Before speaking on his religious beliefs, Muller entertained the gathering with a 15-minute color film of an Argos-Montreal Alouettes clash.

"When I come up against a tough team, I get by by knowing that God loves me and by thinking of what Jesus Christ went through," offers Muller.

Mississauga fencer appointed to team

Mississauga's Bruce Withers has been appointed to the 1976 Canadian Olympic Development squad it was learned Tuesday.

As a result of his appointment Withers will receive sponsorship by game plan in training, coaching and travel.

Second, the athlete must be in the top twenty of his or her event and lastly the athlete must show potential in doing well in the 1976 Olympics to be held in Montreal.

It is under the third category that Withers qualified.
