THE HONOURABLE, W. L. MCKENZIE KING,
HOUSE OF COMMONS,
OTTAWA, ONT.

MY DEAR MR. KING:-

I returned from my vacation which I continued after I left Ottawa at the conclusion of the Liberal Convention, and I am taking the liberty now of assuring you of our loyal support and earnest effort to make you the next Premier of Canada and placing the Liberal Party in the position it should occupy in the confidence of the Canadian people.

We are in pretty fair form here, having the best newspaper in town, which has double the circulation of the Tory sheet, and the people generally, are sick and tired of the Borden-Rowell circus.

You will probably remember me as I was Chairman of the Reception Committee when Sir Wilfrid Laurier, yourself and other leaders of the Liberal Party were here some years ago. I also had a very pleasant visit with Sir Wilfrid and yourself, the morning after Senator Jaffrey's
