

In the mutual growth of economic enterprises bound together by reciprocal preferences would be found the guarantee of a constantly extending market for our goods. If the present rate of preference on existing duties be increased, and further schemes worked out upon the lines suggested, we shall have found a speedy solution of the problem of unemployment, which threatens such danger to the whole community.

THE EMPIRE DEVELOPMENT UNION.

LONG OF WRAXALL,	President.
V. CAILLARD,	Vice-President.
W. HEWINS,	Chairman.
CHARLES E. COLLIER,	Treasurer.
JAMES WEIR,	Secretary.