

April 13/32

Dear Mr. Meighen -

we are in the closing hours of our session and as the course of the whole is struggling through the last bills under the capable direction of the ~~late~~ General I thought I would write you a few lines. For some reason during this strenuous session when you on many occasions we faced the bitter attacks of our. But off, I found myself thinking of you and of your experiences. We have put through - with only a dependable majority of 4, with 2 "wobblers" - a program of legislation involving new taxation to the extent of $3,000,000 and reduction of services for a similar amount. Every inch was fought through bitterly and persistently. At least seven straight weeks of confidence motions faced us and we had
