

I can't imagine myself a married man and I never intended to get married until I had at least become a kind of lawyer you can never arrange these things!

I hope you had a very successful Xmas; I had a card from Doubtless yet but I'm sure they would. Please give my kind regards to Mrs. May Cattwood.

With the best of wishes for 1932.

Your affectionate nephew Helen May.

side of Canada which would be a very fine thing for Canada had a good asset & the continued success of the British Empire.
The latest rumour we hear is that they hope & lay down one of the first new ships shortly.
There were originally proposed for this year
but of course economy has been the most
