

Q. What happened when you got there?

A. When I got there the camp was closed and there was just a small skeleton staff. I reported to the skeleton staff and there was a Sergeant in charge of the work party and he didn't know what to do so he advised me to go to No. 2 District Depot in Toronto.

Q. Did you get a route letter to go to Toronto?

A. No, sir; I hitch-hiked.

Q. What date did you report to the depot?

A. October 3, the same day.

Q. Who did you report to?

A. I went into the orderly room in the Horse Palace.

Q. That is No. 2 District Depot, Toronto?

A. That's correct.

Q. What did you tell them?

A. I didn't tell them I was A.W.L., I asked them under the circumstances if a man were A.W.L. and came back to his camp and it were closed what should he do. I asked what would be done, I didn't say I was the subject of that.

Q. Right?

A. And he didn't know what to do and he had no advice to give me.

Q. What did you do then?

A. Sir, I stayed at the Depot and I got a job in Toronto and was working.

Q. Did you draw any issue when you were at the Depot?

A. I drew a pair of boots.

Q. What else did you draw?

A. That's all.

Q. Did you eat at the Depot?

A. Yes, sir.
