

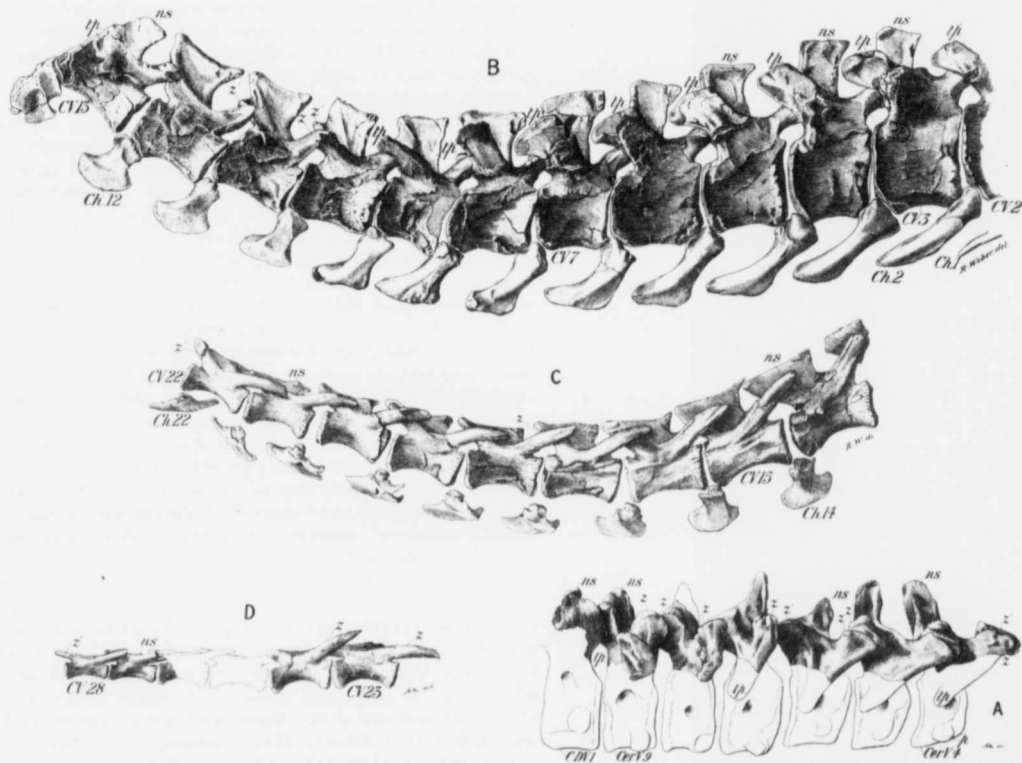

Figure 14. Cervical and caudal vertebrae of the type of Gorgosaurus; cervical $\frac{1}{3}$ and caudal $\frac{1}{3}$ natural size. A, cervical vertebrae, the fourth to the ninth, with the supposed cervico-dorsal vertebra (No. 10); the restored parts are unshaded; B, caudal vertebrae, the second to the thirteenth; C, caudal vertebrae, the fourteenth to the twenty-second; D, caudal vertebrae (found displaced) the twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-sixth (in part), twenty-seventh, and twenty-eighth; C-DV, cervico-dorsal vertebra; CerV, cervical vertebra; Ch, chevron bone; CV, caudal vertebra; ns, neural spine; p, parapophysis; tp, transverse process; z, prezygapophysis; z', postzygapophysis.