MEN IN THE MAKING

By AMBROSE SHEPHERD, D.D.

A study of the forces for good and for evil by which men are surrounded and by which they are apt to be influenced.

A YOUNG MAN'S RELIGION

By GEORGE JACKSON, B.A.

Mr. Jackson does not contend that the young man needs a different religion from his grandparents, but he needs it differently—his temptations and inspirations being of a different nature from theirs.

THE LAW OF THE TEN WORDS

By PRINCIPAL J. OSWALD DYKES, D.D.

Original and vastly suggestive helps to a better understanding of the fullest application of the Ten Commandments.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

By R. W. DALE, LL.D. (Birmingham)

A book which at the time it appeared, as ever since, has been the classic on the Decalogue.

PRAYERS FROM PLYMOUTH PULPIT

By HENRY WARD BEECHER.

These prayers cover the whole range of pulpit petition as well as brief prayers in the class-room.

IMAGO CHRISTI

By PROF. JAMES STALKER, D.D.

A book which deals with the example of Christ in its bearing upon daily conduct.

MESSAGES OF TO-DAY

TO THE MEN OF TO-MORROW

By GEORGE C. LORIMER, D.D.

A sparkling, vivacious, eloquent book full of meat and condensed wisdom.

THE INFLUENCE OF CHRIST IN MODERN LIFE

By NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS

The place of Jesus in the intellect of the modern world and his influence over civilization are here adduced as reasons for his claim on the heart.
