Russians Again Retreat in Galicia and Germans Launch Another Attack Against Warsaw

TRADE UNIONS' APPEAL

Call on British Labor to Enroll for War Work-Peac is Suppressed.

The Russians are again retreating in Galicia, both to the north and south of Lemberg, and in Poland the Germans have launched another attack against Warsaw in the form of a drive from the north through Przasnysz. The new blow at the Polish capital has been preceded by a terrific artillery action. orded by the Russians themselves, but it is too early to say whether it means a serious offensive the first clash having developed a bayonet encounter, the result of which neither side records. Neither Berlin nor Vienna makes reference to the conflict in this region, confining their statements to the Galician situation, where victories are claimed in various sec tors, from the Bessarabian frontier to Rawa Ruska north of Lemberg. What is more important, the Germans claim that the Teutonic forces have crossed the Dniester northwest of Halicz, and have driver the Russians some miles into the hills.

Trade unio nleaders have issued a manifesto addressed to their fellow trade unionists, saying: are faced with a great responsibility and at the same time are presented with a magnificent opportunity We are called upon to assist in saving our nation and its allies who are fighting for civilization and international law as against barbarism and brute force After calling attention to the serious position of the British and Russian armies in the field, in consequence of the shortage of munitions, the manifesto appeals to "every skilled workman of the engineering and allied trades who is not at present engaged upon war work to enroll himself as a volunteer in this gage bonds. hour of need demonstrate to his comrades in the trenches and to the whole world that British trade sism stands for all that is best in national life, national freedom and in national security."

Perhaps the Germans still will have the hardihood to contend that Great Britain started the war. Wade Chance, the English financier, after a visit to France, says that before the war the Germans had 4,000,000 reserve Shells for each of their five sizes of guns. This reserve has been kept up, and there is guns. This is a shortage, no prospect of a shortage.
